Bandits Rob British Train: $2.8 Million

Gang Pulls Off Biggest Rail Job In England History

CHEDDINGTON, England (AP)—A band of 20 to 30 masked bandits decoyed the Glasgow-London mail train to a halt with a false signal today, blackjacked the engineer and escaped with loot that the postoffice said may exceed a million pounds (2.8 million dollars).

Executed in 15 minutes, this was the biggest and boldest train robbery in British history. Of comparable robberies in the United States, the biggest cash haul was $1,551,277 taken last Aug. 14 from a mail truck outside Plymouth, Mass.

HEAVY LOSS

"The loss is likely to be very heavy and may well run into seven figures," the British Post Office said. "This is the first attempt on a traveling post-office in the 125-years of their history."

Postmaster General Regin ald Bevins promptly ordered a 10,000-pound ($28,000) reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the bandits.

The bandits seized about 120 bags of registered mail containing a large quantity of used but still valid currency which was being returned to London for reprocessing.

DIAMOND HAUL

There were reports the haul also included a consignment of diamonds for Hatton Market, London's gem trading center.

The bandits struck shortly after 3 a.m. at a rural crossing 40 miles northwest of London. They covered the green signal at the crossing with a glove and put batteries behind the red signal to light it. They also cut railway telephone wires.

Garbed in coveralls and various types of masks, the band boarded the train with clubs and iron bars as weapons when engineer Jack Mills, 58, halted his diesel engine. Mills was clubbed down.

WINDOWS SMASHED

Some smashed windows of the first two mail coaches and climbed aboard. They bound the four mail sorters. They handcuffed the assistant engineer, David Whitby, to Mills, uncoupled the two coaches from the remaining 10 cars of the train and forced the engineer to move the engine and two cars a mile farther south.

Whitby said later he was told by one of the bandits:

"If you shout, I will kill you."

The band unloaded the mail bags on a bridge over a narrow country road and dropped them to cars waiting on the road, 15 feet below. Then they sped away.

"It was obviously a very professional job," said detective Supt. Malcolm Fewtrell of Buckinghamshire. "They seemed to know their railway signaling."

Aerojet Corp. Denies Angel Island Tests

Aerojet General Corp. today denied that it is still considering use of a site south of Angel Island for underwater firing tests of liquid fuel rocket engines.

A company spokesman in the company's Sacramento office admitted that a recent application to the Army Corps of Engineers made it appear that the Angel Island site was still being considered.

ALTERNATE SITE

The application to the corps, which has navigational jurisdiction over water of San Francisco Bay, asked for approval of an alternate site 220 yards from the largest of the Sisters islands off Point San Pedro.

The application asked approval of the site only "in the event it is impractical to conduct deep water tests southerly of Angel Island."

This wording was revealed in a notice from the corps saying that any navigational protest must be filed before Aug. 30.

DIRECT CONFLICT

The statement appeared in direct conflict with an Aerojet assurance to Rep. Donald H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) that the Angel Island site had been abandoned. Residents of nearby Tiburon had protested the Angel Island tests.

Aerojet today issued the following statement:

"Aerojet General Corp. has every intention of honoring its agreement with Congressman Don Clausen not to conduct test firing of rocket engines off

HEROIC DOCTOR

Fugitive Saved In Red 'Death Zone'

HELMSTEDT, Germany (UPI)—"I could not let the man bleed to death out there. A human life was at stake. I am a doctor."

So Dr. Ernst Stoeter calmly removed his coat, crawled 90 yards through barbed wire into a Communist border "death zone" minefield and dragged back to safety a fleeing criminal shattered by a mine blast.

West German police said today the 26-year-old man had fled on foot from West Germany into East Germany with his 21-year-old wife and 4-year-old daughter yesterday to escape a prison term on a morals charge.

But 30 yards into Communist territory—on the edge of the East German border anti-refugee strip—he stepped on a mine.

The blast shattered his right leg and fragments injured his wife. His wife, however, managed to drag him under a bush in fear the blast would alert East German guards and fled back to the West with her daughter for help .

Stoeter, a country doctor, was summoned from a nearby home for aged persons. He stood at the border's edge while the weeping woman pointed across the barbed wire to the bush under which her wounded husband lay.

Dr. Steoter surveyed the land, removed his coat and began the perilous journey. He crawled through the barbed wire entanglements over a plowed strip and across the minefield the Communists laid to stop East Germans escaping to the West.

Under the bush, he applied emergency first aid.

Fearing the East German guards—who have orders to shoot on sight anyone found in the death zone—Dr. Steoter gathered the fugitive in his arms and began to make the dangerous return trip.

A few yards from the border, the fugitive's wife joined him and together they brought the injured man to safety.

The fugitive's mangled leg had to be amputated later. Police said he fled with his family only minutes before he was scheduled to be picked up at his home to begin an 18-month prison term.

Ironically, he could have entered East Germany merely by walking through a regular border crossing point, which is permitted by West German law.

President Sends Pact To Senate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy today sent to the Senate the limited nuclear test ban treaty and urged its swift ratification as a measure which would actually increase American security while helping "to ease the threat of war."

The president assured senators that there was nothing in the treaty which would endanger the defenses of the United States and said the pact could lead to "further agreements" to blunt the peril of nuclear war.

Doctors Treating Baby Boy

BOSTON (UPI)—The ailing infant son of President and Mrs. John F. Kennedy took a turn for the worse at a hospital here today and brought the chief executive rushing back from Cape Cod.

The president returned by helicopter six hours before he had planned to do so. The quick trip came after a consultation with doctors treating day-old Patrick Bouvier Kennedy. (See also, page 2).

The four-pound-10-ounce infant is suffering from a breathing difficulty which worsened during the day.

TALK TO DOCTORS

After landing the president went immediately to Children's Hospital Medical Center to talk with doctors.

Press secretary Pierre Salinger told newsmen: "The president's new son is encountering increasing new difficulties. There are going to be some tests taken which will give us additional information. Meanwhile, the president is going to his hotel to wait for results of the tests."

BLOOD TESTS

Salinger said these were blood tests "associated with the oxygen problem" of the infant. The breathing difficulty became apparent within an hour after the child was born five and one-half weeks prematurely to Mrs. Kennedy at Otis Air Force Base Hospital on Cape Cod.

Salinger said no surgery has been contemplated and none had been performed.

SEC: NO STOCK MARKET BLAME

Committee Says Can't Single Out Group For Sharp Break Of 1962

WASHINGTON (AP) — A special Securities and Exchange Commission study committee said today there was no evidence of manipulation or illegal conduct in the sharp stock market break of 1962.

The committee agreed with a New York Stock Exchange report that no discernible single group, or circumstances, could be singled out as the cause of the tremendous drop in stock prices in late May of last year.

The special committee wound up a two-year study of the securities industry with recommendation for changes in the basic voting power on the New York Stock Exchange, for abolition or strict control over the heavy initial fees which some mutual funds charge investors, and for basic changes in the rules for buying stock on credit.

The third and final installment of the report echoed the committee's previous call for more vigorous self-regulation by the stock exchanges and other industry groups, such as the National Assn. of Securities dealers.

At the same time, the commission disclosed in a letter to Congress that it plans to propose only one, or possibly two, pieces of legislation other than the package which recently passed the Senate and is awaiting House action.

Since the package measure has the support of the stock exchangers and other principal industry groups, the commission has no hotly controversial proposals to make to Congress.

Many of the sweeping changes proposed in previous sections of the 13-chapter report can be put into effect by a simple order of the commission.

As previously announced, the commission said it planned to submit to Congress next year a proposal for changing the method of quoting prices on over-the-counter stocks, and for placing some control over the process.

Over-the-counter securities are those not listed on exchanges.

The SEC also said it would go along with new proposals the Federal Reserve Board might have in regard to the buying of stocks on credit.

The SEC indicated that it would discuss the matter with the Federal Reserve, which controls credit that is advanced for the purpose of buying or holding securities.

There were no specific recommendations in regard to preventing future sudden, wide swings in stock prices, but the study group said previous proposals for changes in the exchanges probably would help preserve an orderly market.

The previous proposals called for the elimination of floor traders, strict controls over floor specialists, and changes in the system of handling small transactions.

5-Car Smashup On Highway Leaves 4 Hurt

Four persons were injured in a five-car smashup at about 5:55 p.m. yesterday on Highway 101 about 200 feet south of the San Rafael overpass.

Both southbound lanes and the left northbound lane of the highway were blocked for several minutes. Heavy commuter traffic was backed up several miles north and south of San Rafael for more than a half hour.

The chain recation foul-up began, reported California Highway Patrolman Daniel Sully, when a northbound station wagon driven by William John Slattery, 23, a clerk of 115 J Street, San Rafael, swerved into the southbound left lane as Slattery applied the brakes to avoid hitting a car ahead.

The Slattery car hit the left front of a southbound car driven by Julius Y. Zanger, 50, of San Francisco, a barber at Hamilton Air Force Base. It in turn hit a southbound car driven by Donald O. Brazeal, 45, of Mountain View.

Meanwhile, a new Buick hardtop, headed north, driven by Gladys H. McConnel, 71, of Healdsburg, hit a northbound car driven by Philip W. Richard, 26, of 237 Grande Vista, Novato. Sully said the Slattery car may have knocked the McConnell car out of its lane.

Slattery was admitted to San Rafael General Hospital for back, head and eye injuries. His condition today was good. He was cited for crossing a divider line and causing an injury accident.

Mrs. McConnell was treated for chest and back pains, and Shirley Kubota, 25, of San Francisco, passenger with Zanger, was treated for leg and lip injuries at the same hospital. Zanger was to see his doctor for bruises.

Petaluman Is Pinned Inside Car

A 40-year-old Petaluma man was pinned inside his car early today when it hit a parked truck on Lincoln Avenue shortly after 2 a.m.

Leland Percival Morris Jr. was pinned beneath the twisted steering column. He was in "good" condition today at San Rafael General Hospital where he was treated for multiple face cuts.

Morris's car hit a ton and one-half truck belonging to the C and N Construction Co. of 717 Francisco Boulevard. It was parked in front of 1454 Lincoln Avenue.

Police measured 120 feet of skid marks in the northbound lane. The truck was pushed 30 feet by the impact of the collision.

CRUMPLED—The front end of a car and the rear end of a truck sustained heavy damage early today when the driver of the car failed to negotiate a turn on Lincoln Avenue in San Rafael. Police Officer David Vargo inspects the wreckage. (Independent-Journal photo)

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Flash Floods Hit South State

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Thundershowers deluged parts of Southern California yesterday, causing flash floods which washed out highways, swept away cars and flooded two communities.

Up to three feet of water flooded Victorville and Apple Valley in the Mojave Desert. Residents and businessmen piled sandbags, brooms, shovels and rags in front of their homes and stores to stem the flood, sheriff's deputies said.

Three men in a jeep were rescued by rope line after waist-high water washed out a portion of State Highway 18 between Victorville and Apply Valley. The road is a main route from Los Angeles to Las Vegas.

Bombing Of City Called Accident

ALAMEDA (AP)—A Navy Board of Inquiry found yesterday that a 25-pound, blue, non-explosive practice bomb dropped accidentally off a jet fighter as it flew over San Francisco was due to "mechanical failure."

The board recommended that no disciplinary action be taken against the pilot, Lt. Richard A. Kiner, a reserve Navy pilot from Anaheim.

"The bomb rack was faulty, due to worn out parts," a board spokesman said at the conclusion of the hearing at Alameda Naval Air Station.

$20s Scattered Along Tracks

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A postal money bag containing an estimated $100,000 fell from a transfer wagon, was run over by a train and burst open, scattering $20 bills along the track.

"Fortunately there was no wind," said a railroad station employee, after the mishap yesterday. "The money was gathered up in about 20 minutes."

Playwright Better

GLOUCESTER, Mass. (UPI)—Howard Lindsay, 74, Pulitzer prize-winning playwright, Broadway producer and actor, was in excellent condition today, following an emergency appendectomy.

Lindsay underwent surgery for acute appendicitis Monday night at Addison Gilbert Hospital after becoming ill while visiting his partner of nearly 30 years, Russell Crouse, a resident here.

Red Says Get Out

TOKYO (AP) — President Ho Chi Minh of Communist North Viet Nam said today peace peace could be restored in South Viet Nam if the United States pulled out its arms and men.

A broadcast from the North Vietnamese capital of Hanoi quoted Ho as blaming "U.S. interventionists" for the strife in South Viet Nam.

Arms For Canada

OTTAWA (AP)—Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson says American and Canadian negotiators have "pretty well agreed" on a plan to arm Canadian weapons with U.S. nuclear warheads.

Pearson told newsmen yesterday he may discuss the draft with his cabinet next week.

Turncoat Leaves

HONG KONG (AP)—American turncoat Lowell D. Skinner of Akron, Ohio, left for home under the assumed name of "Braun" today, an airline source reported.

The former U.S. Army corporal, who refused repatriation after the Korean War and spent nine years in Red China, was to change planes in Tokyo.

Rusk To Black Sea

MOSCOW (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk returned today from a sightseeing trip to Leningrad, then flew with Foreign Secretary Andrei Gromyko to join Premier Nikita Khrushchev on the Black Sea.

Rusk was accompanied to the premier's vacation home at Gagra by Llewellyn Thompson, special adviser on Soviet affairs to the State Department and former ambassador to Moscow, and Foy D. Kohler, the present ambassador.

Nikita Wants Troops

BERLIN (AP)—Premier Nikita Khrushchev wants to deploy some of his 300,000 troops in East Germany along the potentially explosive Soviet-Chinese frontier and for that reason is eager to settle the Berlin issue, Communist sources claim.

The suggestion, offered yesterday to Western correspondents by non-German Communists, may have been planted by the Reds, diplomats in West Berlin said.

Ex-Dictator Sought

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—Police and army troops sought ex-dictator Gustave Rojas Pinilla today on a charge of plotting a forcible comeback while President Guillermo Leon Valencia was in Venezuela.

The government said the plot was thwarted as Valencia and Venezuelan President Romulo Betancourt met and signed a pledge to defend their nations and other Latin-American democracies against plots to overthrow them.

The Order of the Purple Heart was established by George Washington in 1782.

Kennedy Baby Baptized Patrick Bouvier

BOSTON (AP)—A new presidential baby, quickly baptized Patrick Bouvier Kennedy, rested in a special incubator today, suffering from breathing difficulties resulting from premature birth.

Little Patrick was reported to be holding his own. The condition was not clearly defined, described as a minor lung problem and not unusual for a premature baby.

President John F. Kennedy visited his ailing son at the hospital and set up a commuting schedule between here and his wife's bedside at Cape Cod.

First Lady Jacqueline Kennedy rested nicely overnight and was reported in excellent condition after the excitement of the Caesarian birth of her third child, five and one-half weeks ahead of time. Her mother, Mrs. Hugh Auchincloss, who flew to Cape Cod last night, said Mrs. Kennedy was "remarkably well and in good spirits."

The president's infant son was rushed by ambulance to Boston Children's Medical Center within five hours of his birth at Otis Air Force Base Hospital, some 65 miles from Boston.

Little Patrick was not considered on the danger list or anything like it, according to Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary. However, Salinger said it would probably take four days before the condition develops to a point where a final diagnosis can be made.

The president made plans to send up his nuclear test ban treaty message this afternoon, as was scheduled before the emergency birth interrupted his White House routine.

The birth of the Kennedy's second son had all the excitement of a fictional drama.

It was the first time in 68 years that a baby was born to the wife of the president in office. It hadn't happened since the Cleveland era.

It was the 22nd grandchild in the family headed by Joseph P. Kennedy, 74, former ambassador to England. For the second time, Kennedy lost a race with the stork. He was about 40 minutes too late to be at Otis Air Force Base when his second son arrived yesterday. And, in November, 1960, when his first son, John Jr., was born some three weeks prematurely, Kennedy, flying back from Palm Beach, Fla., got the word in the air that the baby had been born at Georgetown University Hospital, again in a similar emergency situation.

The Kennedy's named the new baby Patrick, after the President's grandfather, and Bouvier, for Mrs. Kennedy's father, the late John V. Bouvier, a New York stock broker.

Mrs. Kennedy had brief glimpses of her new son. The last time, he was wheeled into her room in a special incubator by the president himself. And then, the infant was whisked off for a speedy ambulance dash to Boston, a trip that took a little more than one hour.

Doctors had decided it could get better medical treatment at the Children's Medical Center, which is considered one of the best hospitals in the country specializing in children's diseases.

There, the baby was placed in an Isolette, a machine that bridges the gap between the mother's womb and the outside world, keeping temperature and humidity at the best balance to facilitate breathing.

The medical problem of the Kennedy offspring was described as "idiopathic respiratory distress syndrome." In layman's language, it means the baby's lungs had not developed sufficiently to function properly outside the mother's womb.

A staff member who saw the infant said he was "beautifully formed."

Details were meager from inside the hospital, where military security was quickly clamped down. At night, the Air Force set up a guard house outside the door of the long, one-story, green-shingled hospital ward wing where Mrs. Kennedy rested in an air conditioned bedroom of an 8-room suite.

A corps of 10 Air Force doctors and nurses had assisted Mrs. Kennedy's obstetrician, Dr. John W. Walsh, 50, of Washington, in what was described as a normal Caesarian birth. It was the fourth Caesarian for the First Lady. She lost one baby in 1956 by Caesarian delivery. Her two previous children were born by such an operation, which removes the child before the mother goes into labor.

In keeping with Kennedy tradition, the longtime family nurse, Luella Hennessey of Walpole, Mass., hastened to report for duty at Mrs. Kennedy's hospital room. She has assisted at all but one of the births of the Kennedy grandchildren.

The first lady calmly took her two youngsters, Caroline 5, and John Jr. 2, off for a horseback ride outing yesterday.

They were at a farm area in Osterville, not far from Hyannis Port, where the Kennedy family stables some horses for riding. Suddenly, Mrs. Kennedy started to have labor pains.

Dr. Walsh, who had been on vacation on Cape Cod, was summoned and Mrs. Kennedy was driven back to her Squaw Island home.

Dr. Walsh confirmed that the baby was coming and set the emergency procedure in motion.

FLOOD DAMAGE IN NEW YORK

Flood victims in the Buffalo, N.Y., suburb of Cheekowaga are evacuated by small boat during torrential rains which left many sections of the city under four feet of water. Rains drenched the area for the second time in 10 days yesterday. Damage has been estimated at 30 million dollars. Three hundred persons were forced from their homes.

Haitian Says 'Good Order Prevails' But Exiles Claim Invaders Advance

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP) — President Francois Duvalier's government claims the invasion of Haiti by Haitian exiles has been crushed, but exile sources in the Dominican Republic insist the invaders are advancing.

Information Minister George J. Figaro said in a communique that Duvalier's troops had crushed the invasion after several hours of fighting in north Haiti Monday. He claimed the rebels, led by Gen. Leon Cantave, a former chief of staff, had been driven into the neighboring Dominican Republic.

The communique said "a state of good order prevails" throughout Haiti.

Adrien Raymond, foreign office undersecretary, told newsmen some rebels were killed or captured, but acknowledged that Cantave was not among them.

The government placed the size of the invading forces at about 100, or one fifth of what the rebels claimed.

Private sources in Port au Prince claimed Cantave was still on Haitian soil pressing his drive to topple Duvalier.

A rebel spokesman in the Dominican Republic accused Duvalier's regime of issuing false victory claims to try and discourage Haitians from joining the invaders.

Exile sources in the Dominican capital of Santo Domingo insisted two rebel columns had thrust down past Cap Haitien, Haiti's second city, and a third was moving across the northwest peninsula in an apparent squeeze on Gonaives, the country's third largest city.

Rebel informants claimed the invasion force started at 500 strong but was swelled as it advanced by defections from Duvalier's forces.

Haitian Ambassador Fern D. Baguidy told a special committee of the Organization of American States in Washington yesterday that "danger still exists because of the enmity of Dominican President Juan Bosch" toward Duvalier.

Baguidy reiterated charges that the Dominican Republic collaborated with the invading force. The Dominican government and invasion leaders have denied the invasion was launched from Dominican soil.

Thant: Nonaggression Pact Chances Good

NEW YORK (AP)—U Thant, United Nations secretary-general, returned from Moscow last night and said prospects of an early nonaggression declaration by the East and West is a definite possibility.

But he said it was too early to say when such a pact might be signed.

San Francisco public health facilities include six emergency hospitals.

Youths Get School Money By Doing Variety Of Tasks

Marin County youths are working their way through college this summer, typing, baby sitting, and mowing lawns.

Their stories are in the records of the State Department of Employment office in San Rafael.

An example is Maire Tults of 8 Alvina Avenue, San Rafael, who is earning tuition money to study for a medical degree, specializing in biochemistry.

"I'll do anything," she told the placement interviewer. "Type, keep records, 'mind babies, clean house."

One unidentified youth called the office recently and inquired: "Doesn't anyone need a fence repaired, or a rock wall built or some windows washed? I'm still $90 short of next year's tuition."

There also are many students working to help the family budget such as the McSweeneys of 504 Vendola Drive, Santa Venetia.

Paul, a 16-year-old handyman, has tackled a variety of jobs. His 15-year-old sister, Lynne, has a summer-long job as a mother's helper, and her twin, Dan, is considered an expert with a lawn mower.

"Their father is a long-term invalid, hospitalized away from home," the employment office noted.

One of Paul's recent employers, confined to a wheelchair, said he did a "great" job. "He dusted carefully, vacuumed, polished my kitchen floor, and then telephoned his sister to come over and help him change the bed linen."

Anyone who needs this type of service, or any odd jobs undertaken, may telephone the Department of Employment office in San Rafael, said Edwin W. Ayer, who heads the office.

Winter sports patrons make more than 1.5 million visits annually to about 100 different snow sports areas in California.

Credit Card Use Nets Suspended Sentences

Two brothers arrested July 29 in San Francisco for using a stolen credit card have each been given six months suspended sentences in San Francisco Municipal Court and ordered to make restitution on the $1,200 bill run up with the card.

Russell Fabian, 21, of 162 Alpine Terrace, San Rafael, pleaded guilty to two charges of petty theft. His brother, Leonard Fabian, 25, of San Francisco, pleaded guilty to one count of petty theft after a conspiracy charge was dropped. Leonard Fabian was placed on six months probation.

Claims Rise, Placement Of Jobs Drops In Marin

Job placement dropped and unemployment claims rose slightly last month at the Department of Employment office in San Rafael, according to Edwin W. Ayer, office manager.

Job placement for July dropped to 871 from the all time high of 1,061 in June; but it was ahead of the 785 recorded in July, 1962.

"There continue to be more people and more jobs, but the people always seem to increase faster than the jobs," Ayer said.

A majority of July jobs went to students, 294 to high school students, and 187 to college students.

"Employers in retail trade and householders continued to hire in considerable numbers," Ayer said.

Unemployment insurance claims rose to 2,898 last month as compared to 2,585 in June and 2,781 in July, 1962.

"The increaese over July, 1962, is due primarily to an increased number of persons claiming benefits under the extended duration provision of the law," Ayer said. "The increase in claims over June 1963 is due primarily to the fact there were 22 working days in July and only 20 in June."

The weekly claims rose to the rate of 762 per week as compared to 733 in June.

In 1920 she came to California where she had the same position with the Scripps Institute of Oceanography at La Jolla for several years. Later she moved to San Francisco where she was a sales researcher for the Schilling Co. (now a division of McCormick and Co.) until she retired 20 years ago.

For the past nine years she had made her home with a niece, Mary B. Dedrick, in Mill Valley.

Planners Run Into Marinship 'Bugaboo'

Sausalito planning commissioners spent two and one-half hours last night discussing the proposed Marinship master plan, and running into the old "bugaboo" of the north-south road as proposed through Army Engineers' property, continued the public hearing to Aug. 21.

Ellis Lando, who own property immediately adjacent on the north to the Engineers, wants the road deleted through the Army property. The commission feels the road should be there.

A subcommittee of Robert L. Nissen, acting chairman of the commission, and commissioners Eric Barnett and Walter Thomson, will work on the proposal for a public zoning of Engineers' property and report back Aug. 21. The proposed zoning, previously suggested by the commission, would allow for uses such as park, recreation and civic, should the Army land one day be available for purchase.

T. J. Bettes Co. of San Francisco was given permission to add landscaping to the parking deck of the Cote D'Azur apartments. It was reported, Nissen said, that Bettes has taken over operation of the 60 apartments and is renting them. Formerly owned by Albert Lovett Corp., they were to be sold as cooperative apartments.

The commission granted Robert M. Yee a permit to construct a Chinese type restaurant and four apartment units at 1917-1919 Bridgeway. An earlier request by Yee had been denied, but he has since reduced the seating capacity of the restaurant and thus does not need a variance for off-street parking.

Franklin L. Anderson was granted a permit to use the corner of Bee Street and Bridgeway on Northwestern Pacific Railroad property for sale of garden materials.

'Happiness' For New House In Wine Custom

Happiness for a new house was sought yesterday in Sausalito when Marjorie Lumm of San Francisco poured champagne over the ground of her new homesite in the manner of an old Indian custom.

Miss Lumm, director of the California Wine Institute's home advisory service, invited a few neighbors in for the "sacrifice," including Leon D. Adams, a wine authority who lives near the site at 51 Monte Mar Drive, and Herb Miller, a Black Point tractor operator.

Miss Lumm climbed upon Miller's tractor and poured champagne on the ground, after which the well-wishers each tried a bit of the beverage. Adams explained that a pre-Hindu custom in India considered this act "as a sacrifice to assure happiness in the house."

Marinite Can't Shock Parisians

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Parisians, who have grown accustomed to just about everything, were only mildly curious last month when they witnessed an American "happening" on Place St. Michele.

So says Kit Goldsmith, 19, Mill Valley student, who returned last week after participating in a "happening" with a crew of American actors and musicians.

Goldsmith was a behind-the-scenes man on lighting for an avant garde American group which staged a play in an annual festival under auspices of the Theater of Nations. Goldsmith was with A.C.T. of San Francisco.

The group produced "The Gift," based on the myth of Prometheus and written by San Francisco playwright Kenneth Dewey.

"We created a happening to publicize the plays," Goldsmith explained, although happenings may be done just "to do it."

"A happening can be nearly anything. The theory behind it is to create a situation which may or may not be a natural situation. It may be rather bizarre. You create it and let people look at it and see what people will do."

For example, Goldsmith related, someone may park a car and open the hood and someone else will pour water on top of his car, This is a possible situation.

"Here's what we did in Paris," said the student. "We drove up to Place St. Michele in our Volkswagen bus. Our music composer sat on top of the bus and played the "guts" of a piano. Meanwhile the rest of the group got out on the sidewalks and street and began to create situations among themselves. Two would argue about something, nothing to do with the play.

"It might be: 'Your hair is green. I can't stand your hair. It's green.' Two might chase each other around and scream. This is an unnatural situation and soon an enormous crowd gathers.

" 'These people are mad,' they say. And then the gendarmes come anticipating possibilities and tell us to please move on because we are causing a disturbance.

"That was the end and we left, except one actor and I wrote on the sidewalk 'The Gift,' the dates, the theater and what metro to take."

Sculptor Jerry Walters, also of Mill Valley, and Goldsmith created a huge mobile of pipes for the play which resembled a praying mantis. Goldsmith said it is possible to ride the mobile.

"The play started in the street outside the theater with Chet Baker's jazz band playing. I played spotlights from the balconies and dancers moved into the streets and climbed the facades of the buildings. All was improvisation," said the student.

"The mobile was introduced, then the mobile came to life. All this was with an effort to break the barrier between the stage and the audience. The mobile finally is hauled off to the side and dies," he added.

Goldsmith went to Europe in March, joining the Dancers Workshop of San Francisco in Venice. The group, headed by Ann Halprin of Kentfield, worked for a month before performing at the Venice Opera House at the International Festival of Contemporary Music.

The 19, of whom 11 are of Marin, then performed in Rome and lastly at Zagreb, Yugoslavia, where they did three performances which Goldsmith said were "very successful."

"We were very thrilled that in this Communistic country they would be so interested in a very contemporary work," said Goldsmith, who said his job was principally to organize props.

"We were condemned by the Russian delegation, who were at one of the performances and walked out."

The dancers group officially broke up at Zagreb, Goldsmith traveling around Europe for about six weeks and then joining the actors group in Paris.

$320 Is Stolen From Open Safe

Owner Edward Miller reported to the sheriff's office yesterday some one took $320 in cash out of an open safe at the Eat and Run, a drive-in sandwich shop at 830 College Avenue, Kentfield.

He said the money was in a bank deposit bag in the safe which Miller keeps by his desk. He said the safe could not be seen by customers but was accessible through the back of the drive-in.

Miller said he didn't notice the cash was gone until he started to count receipts yesterday morning.

Briton Finds Hitchhiking Across U.S. Is Not Difficult

By ALTON S. BOCK

Hitchhiking across the United States is easy. The less money you have the easier it is.

This is the advice of a 20-year-old Englishman who has travelled for the past five months with less than $300 in his pockets and plans to "keep going as long as I like."

Donald Kennett, son of a London shipping agent, stopped at the Marin County Civic Center on his way up Highway 101 to Vancouver, B.C.

"I'm just a bum, really, he explained, "I'm not sure what I will do eventually, but I plan to keep moving about until I decide."

His visit to the new Civic Center was more than just casual. He studied for a year in a London School of Architecture, although he has doubts now about a career in the field.

"The building is more ornate than I expected," he said of the Frank Lloyd Wright design. "I was surprised, because I had the impression that his last works were along very simple lines. But I think I rather like it."

Kennett left London last month and joined the crew of a freighter, leaving Glasgow with a cargo of Scotch. The ship stopped in Baltimore, Md., where he began his hitchhiking journey, stopping in New York, Chicago, Dallas and San Francisco to visit friends or "friends of friends."

"Everyone has been very generous," he said. "I've managed to spend very little of my money."

In Sausalito, he submitted a short story to the editors of Contact.

"A fortune teller in Beverly Hills told me I should write," he said. "I'm not so sure about that, though, for I flunked English in public school."

His next stop may be uncertain, for he hopes to join the crew of another ship before long, possibly on a voyage to the Pacific. "My permit to stay in the United States runs out Aug. 20," he said. "I just have to live from day to day, but it's a lot of fun."

San Rafael School High Tax Increase Sturdily Defended

"Financing schools is like Christmas," Lothar Salin of San Rafael said today on the radio KTIM "Marin Sounding Board." "The kids may not know who Santa Claus is, but father does."

Salin and three other proponents of a 50-cent tax increase for the San Rafael High School District made a sturdy defense of the proposed increase, which will go before the voters Oct. 8 along with two proposed bond issues for the elementary district.

Panelists included Mrs. Robert Walker, chairman of the building committee of the Citizens Committee on School District Finance and Facilities; Carl J. Brown, member of the San Rafael Board of Education; Supt. Bert C. Corona, and Salin, a member of the committee.

"The district has no bonding capacity left," said Salin. "The voters could approve 10 million dollars in bonds tomorrow, and the district couldn't sell them.

"Asking for a tax increase instead seemed the most sensible thing to do. It will not be a crushing burden on the taxpayers."

If approved, the high school general tax could go as high as $1.75 per $100 assessed valuation. Corona said the increases from the present $1.25 would be made in small yearly jumps. Part of the money would be used to build more classrooms at Terra Linda and San Rafael High Schools and make repairs at San Rafael High, to bring each school to a capacity of 2,400 by the end of five years.

"We are not eligible for state aid," said Corona. "Our bonding capacity is sufficient for the population, according to state standards, and the footage we have now is beyond that required by the state."

"The big auditorium and roomy corridors at San Rafael High are counted against us," said Salin.

Questioned by a listener on why the old library and 10 classrooms at San Rafael could not be expanded instead of torn down to make room for a new library and two-story, 34-classroom building, Corona said:

"We don't have the 42 acres recommended by the state for a high school site. It would be more economical to replace these classrooms with a higher density building."

"If we leave them up," said Salin, "we'd have to go to the marsh to build a second classroom addition. The old site is rock and wouldn't need added footings."

"There will be no double sessions at San Rafael High," promised Brown in answer to a question.

"The first study had both the new 34-classroom unit and repair work in the old auditorium building being done at once," said Corona, "and naturally we have been cramped for space. Now, that plan has been completely abandoned."

Brown thanked the school committee for its extensive investigation. "They've saved the board a great deal of work," he said.

The program, moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer, will be repeated from tape at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Days Receipts Stolen From Ignacio Drive-In

A car hop who forgot to put a sack containing the day's receipts in a safe reported the theft of $120.35 in cash from the office of Burge's Drive-In, 6017 Redwood Highway, Ignacio.

Betty L. Larsen, 1885 South Novato Boulevard, Novato, told sheriff's officers yesterday she had finished her shift and had put the money in a bank sack, but had started talking with other employees and had left the sack on a desk in the restaurant office, only to find it gone when she returned later in the evening.

No One Bids On Property In Novato

No one bid on a parcel of land beside Highway 101 between Vallejo and Olive avenues in Novato when it was placed for sale at public auction at 11 a.m. today by the State Division of Highways.

Only 11 spectators attended the sale.

The Division of Highways had set a minimum price of $80,000 on the 27,730 square feet parcel of land, which has 175 feet frontage on the highway and 25 feet frontage on Vallejo Avenue. The state paid $62,500 for the land, said John F. Madden, right of way agent who conducted the auction.

"The Division of Highways will now reconsider what it will do with the property, whether to offer it for sale again at the same price or a lower price," Madden said.

It is one of three parcels of land the state purchased for widening the present Highway 101 in Novato before protests brought a decision for a new route. The others are the Grant School site at Grant Avenue and Highway 101 and the Club Rio site near Novato Creek.

The Division of Highways has since selected the "J" route, just east of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad, for the freeway through Novato.

Larkspur Council Facing Budget

Larkspur City Council will meet at 8 p.m. today in city hall to take another stab at shaving $17,000 from an oversized budget proposed for 1963-64.

The council, which planned to discuss the budget last night, adjourned at 11:30 p.m. after having discussed only three of the 16 items on its agenda.

If the council completes its budget discussion early enough, it also expects to hear a request from City Mgr. Ronald E. Piper on streets cleaned by the city sweeping machine and how much this costs the city.

Also proposed for discussion an a proposed street widening policy and a request for abandonment by the city of part of Tamalpais Avenue.

Seven Killed In Freeway Crash

FONTANA (UPI)—Seven persons were killed today when a station wagon carrying 10 persons crashed into a freeway abutment at high speed after the driver apparently fell asleep at the wheel.

No identifications were immediately available at the scene, the California Highway Patrol said. The car bore California license plates.

Patrolmen said the driver of the six-year-old vehicle and two boys were killed instantly and four others died en route to Kaiser Foundation Hospital here. Three survivors were listed as in critical condition.

Inverness Man Faces Charge Of Poaching

Douglas Adams of Muddy Hollow Ranch near Inverness Park was ordered yesterday to appear in Northwest Marin Justice Court at Point Reyes Station at 7:30 a.m. Saturday to answer a poaching complaint.

Ben Roark, foreman of a neighboring ranch, signed the misdemeanor complaint against Adams and filed it in the court of Judge David R. Baty. The complaint charged that Adams was hunting on private property on the opening day of deer season last Saturday.

Girl Is Treated For Cut Wrists

A 19-year-old San Francisco woman, who moved to Mill Valley yesterday to live with her sister-in-law, was reported to have slashed both wrists with a razor blade at 11:23 last night.

Police were told Mrs. Sally Geer was despondent after receiving a note from her husband, Denny, that he "could no longer live with her."

Mrs. Geer, staying at the home of J. Geer at 189 Marion Avenue, was reported to have gone into the bathroom, barricaded the door, and cut her wrists. She was treated for superficial wounds at Marin General Hospital, then transferred to Napa State Hospital.

Woman Injured As Auto Hit In Rear

Paula McCart, 37, of Los Angeles was bruised about 2 p.m. yesterday when the northbound car she was driving was hit in the rear by another car on Highway 101 about 400 feet south of Black Point Cutoff.

The second driver was Army Sp4 Virgil E. Sills, 25, of 40 Princess Street, Sausalito, attached to the San Francisco Presidio, reported the California Highway Patrol. Mrs. McCart was to see a private physician.

Blazing Inferno Destroys Hotel

FUKUYAMA, Japan (AP) — Winds whipped up by typhoon Bess turned a three-story Japanese hotel into a blazing inferno today.

Police said four persons perished, one is missing and eight were injured.

There were no foreigners among the 61 guests at the hotel, on the picturesque Inland Sea 50 miles east of Hiroshima.

America's first globe maker, James Wilson, decided at age 37 he wanted to make globes, for those obtained from Europe were costly.

BUSY BAG BOY BLOCKS BOLD BANDITS

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A busy bag boy blocked a brace of bold bandits — they got befuddled.

Chief Special Agent John Walker of a grocery firm gave this account:

Two women entered a food store in South Louisville last night and demanded money. One had a pistol.

The bag boy was unaware of the holdup attempt. He was on his way to a parking area to get shopping baskets. The woman with the gun told her companion, "We'd better get him in here."

They went outside after the youth. A store official locked the doors behind them. Flustered, the women fled.

Police went looking for them.

New GOP Unit Links Reds, Demos To Bodega Protest

The newly organized Marin Republican Assembly has adopted a resolution which couples "segments of the Democratic party" with the Communist party in the protest against the nuclear power plant proposed at Bodega Head by Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

The resolution, which backs PG&E, also charges that "political undercurrents" of the opposition involve the current administration's goal of "more federalized control of local utilities."

The resolution states:

"The 'People's World,' West Coast mouthpiece of the Communist party, has gone on record calling for organized opposition to the construction of this plant by private enterprise."

The resolution also stresses that "the development of nuclear energy is of the utmost importance in order to provide a supplement for the nation's swiftly dwindling supplies of fossil fuels."

The Marin Republic Assembly, affiliated with the California Republican Assembly, also charges that organizations opposing the plant have used "invalid arguments, created fears and suspicion and used baseless insinuations."

Opponents, including Sec. of Interior Stuart Udall, have questioned the advisability of an atomic reactor near the main line of the San Andreas Fault.

The assembly's resolution declares that the Atomic Energy Commission is the only legally constituted and technically competent body to determine if safeguards are adequate.

Robert D. Weinmann, 888 Greenberry Lane, Lucas Valley, is president of the Marin Republican Assembly. He is also executive director of the state-wide Citizens League for Individual Freedoms which is campaigning against the new California law inhibiting racial discrimination in housing. The league wants a referendum vote on the measure.

Cambric cloth is named for the French city of Cambrai.

Demos Hope To Avoid Squabble At Meeting

SACRAMENTO (AP)—California Democrats hope to avoid a family squabble when they gather at the Capitol this weekend for their state convention.

One high-ranking official said there is at least a tacit truce between warring elements captained by Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh and President Tom Carvey Jr. of the California Democratic Council.

The agenda itself offers little opportunity for intra-party disputes.

Even so, on the basis of past experience, it doesn't take much to trigger a fight among widely divergent Democratic groups.

The Democrats' first annual state convention in recent years will be held Saturday under a "Victory in '64" canopy. Delegates will split off into a series of workshops to discuss how to run campaigns and how to win.

The early planning is aimed at lining up the nation's largest state for President John F. Kennedy in 1964, reversing his defeat to Richard M. Nixon in 1960.

It also will be beamed at reelecting Sen. Clair Engle (D-Calif.) and strengthening Democratic majorities in both the legislature and the state's Congressional delegation.

The Saturday session will provide a party showcase for Engle, as the main speaker. John M. Bailey, Democratic national chairman, is scheduled to discuss the political outlook at a luncheon.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson will address a Sunday meeting.

Fairmont Is Chosen GOP Headquarters

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Fairmont Hotel has been chosen as headquarters for the 1964 Republican National Convention. The rival St. Francis Hotel was picked as the official hotel for distinguished guests.

The convention begins July 13 in the Cow Palace.

Gymnastics Champion Seeking Scholarship

Mehdi Abad, Iranian gymnastics champion for 1963 now residing in Sausalito, is seeking a scholarship at Stanford University where he plans to major in physical education.

The 23-year-old is temporarily "out of action" as far as practicing gymnastics since injuring his right hand in an automobile accident about a week ago.

Abad, who knows little English, has conquered this handicap by simply demonstrating his knowledge of gymnastics. He taught six weeks this summer at Columbia University and Queens College in New York prior to coming to Sausalito where he resides with a friend, David Pyrooz, at 215 Second Street.

Abad, Pyrooz says, has been interested in gymnastics since he was 6. He finished his course in international referee work at the University of Teheran, Iran, this year.

The Iranian champion won five gold medals in Iran in categories of bar parallel, ground demonstration, long horse, a certain form of jumping, and fixed bar.

Pyrooz said Abad will probably teach gymnastics at the Olympic Club in San Francisco.

Story Didn't Live Up

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — An apparent typographical error in a state House of Representatives bill added the mighty redwood to a list of trees Oklahoma can boast.

The House passed the bill to protect dogwood, redbud, pecan and cedar trees in Oklahoma from mutilation and destruction. But one version of the printed bill listed "redwood" instead of redbud.

THEY CALL IT 'WINKIN' LINCOLN'

A couple of young visitors to the Los Angeles County Art Museum take a look at part of a "pop art" exhibit—a painting called "Winkin' Lincoln." It's included in the exhibit assembled by Lawrence Alloway of New York City's Guggenheim Museum. It has produced reactions ranging from bewilderment to ridicule to amusement. This one was painted by Philip Hefferton and shows Lincoln winking from a $5 bill. (AP Wirephoto)

LONG SWIM

Wet Answer To 50-Mile Hike Given

The Tiburon Peninsula Club today announced with pride its "answer to the 50-mile hike"—a 50-mile swim.

Moreover, said the club's announcement, member James Cushing has completed the 50-mile swim and will receive a trophy from the club on Aug. 17 (also, the club hopes, a letter of commendation from President John F. Kennedy).

There was one minor difference, though, between Cushing's 50-mile swim and the 50-mile hikes which were sparked by a directive from the president to the Marine Corps:

Cushing started his swim April 9, paddling a quarter-mile each day.

Larkspur's Value World Gets Big Red Sign

A six-foot red "V" on a round white background may revolve above the new Value World shopping center at Magnolia Avenue and Doherty Drive, Larkspur city councilmen decided last night.

Mayor Lesly A. Daveler and Councilman Robert J. Smith voted against the oversized sign, which had been turned down three times by the Larkspur Planning Commission.

"It's a little larger than most, but the neon lights in it are certainly no brighter," said Dick Demerjian of Ad-Art in Stockton, representing the Lee Brothers development.

A second sign, rectangular, will be attached to the lower half of the gold pole. On it, the 17 stores in the Value World building will take turns advertising specials, Demerjian said.

The two signs come to a total of 396 square feet, or 56 square feet more than the 340 square feet allowed for 17 separate stores.

"If someone's willing to start something that big, there ought to be an exception," said Phil Armone of Corte Madera, at the meeting for other business.

"It's the kind of thing we need for taxes," said Councilman James R. Lienkaemper. He and Councilmen Vaughn Marker and Neil R. Brixon voted for the sign.

The Larkspur council also:

1. Indicated informal approval of abandoning part of Eden Street on request of Arnone, representing the Pinotti property off Eden Street. The roadway easement is a steep staircase and unusable for a road, the council agreed.

2. Discussed whether to abandon a dirt portion of Elm Avenue now used as a one-way street around the hill and build a cul-de-sac at the end of the city's portion of the road or to improve the entire road. Councilmen agreed that interested residents, who have asked for abandonment, should meet with city officials to work out a satisfactory plan.

3. Adjourned to 8 p.m. today at 11:30 p.m. after realizing they had discussed only three of 16 items on the agenda. "We'll do the budget first," said Daveler. "Everything's slow on this council. Very slow," said Brixon.

Astronaut Cooper Taking Vacation

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—Astronaut L. Gordon Cooper arrived yesterday for his first vacation in four years.

The Air Force major, who circled the globe for 34 hours last May, said he plans to spend a quiet few days at the home of his father-in-law, E. J. Olson of nearby Kent.

Cooper married the former Trudy Olson while they were students at the University of Hawaii.

The Oklahoman said he has been engaged in round-the-clock public relations since his space flight and is eager for rest and relaxation.

He arrived by private plane.

STARS JOIN RIGHTS MARCH

Movie and television stars discuss their part in the planned Aug. 28 mass march on Washington, D.C., after about 60 of the performers met in Hollywood last night to pledge participation in the civil rights demonstration. They include Judy Garland (second from left), Eartha Kitt (dark glasses), Marlon Brando (second from right) and James Garner (right). Actor Charlton Heston said the participants would also include Debbie Reynolds, Dean Martin, Gene Kelly, Gregory Peck and Robert Goulet. (AP Wirephoto)

Paradise Beach Park Improvements Planned

Marin County parks and recreation commissioners yesterday authorized Director Kelvin J. Nelson to prepare detailed plans for improvements at Paradise Beach Park, to include a caretaker's cottage, rest rooms, and picnic and parking areas.

The commission's proposed budget for park improvements is $35,500, and Nelson will prepare a "detailed site development plan" for construction during the next year. He will ask the board of supervisors, during final budget hearings next week, to include $6,500 for construction of water mains in the park.

Architects Jack Herman of Kentfield, Allan H. Steinau of Belvedere and Gilbert P. Murphy of Fairfax met with the commission to offer suggestions for landscaping the park. A proposed plan, drawn up by county senior planner Edmund Kagi, was accepted as a basis for final improvements, to include a small house "of modern design" for a park caretaker, rest rooms, picnic facilities, a sea wall, grading, and planting. Parking for about 200 cars will be provided.

Kagi said the Tiburon Peninsula will someday have "eight or 10 times the number of people there now, and a family recreation area such as Paradise Park will be essential."

Reconstruction of the fishing pier at the park is under way at a cost of $30,000, financed by state wildlife conservation funds. The property was conveyed to the county by the Navy in 1959.

Commissioners agreed to cancel the regular September meeting "unless special business" requires another meeting before Oct. 2.

Man Hurt As Land Cruiser Rolls

Julio Dami, 35, of 335 Golden Hind Passage, Corte Madera, owner of the Mill Valley Garbage Co., suffered scalp, spine, pelvis and right knee injuries about 3:30 p.m. yesterday when a Toyota land cruiser he was driving rolled over in Inverness.

The incomplete California Highway Patrol report by Officer Donald Greer said the accident happened on property of Dr. M. R. Ottinger about four miles west of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

Greer said the vehicle was being towed up a road when the rope broke, causing it to roll backward downhill and overturn.

Dami was admitted to Marin General Hospital, where his condition today was termed "good."

Experiments by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration show that 100 pounds of stony meteorite, when boiled at intense heat, yield three to four pounds of life-giving oxygen.

Heart Attack Cause Of Death

A heart attack caused the death of Charles J. Wheeler, 53, a San Quentin Prison inmate who died at the prison hospital Tuesday.

Asst. Coroner William C. Bradley, who conducted an autopsy yesterday, said Wheeler had arrested tuberculosis, but it was a bad heart that brought death.

Chapel of the Hills in San Anselmo was making arrangements today for funeral services at Wheeler's home in Oklahoma.

Socialite Is Suing Club For Allowing Him To Have Drink

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A member of New York's Cromwell and Whitney families is suing his San Francisco club for $100,000 for not curbing his drinking.

He also is suing a San Francisco hospital for $100,000 for alleged negligence in treating him after he fell because of the liquor he said his club let him drink.

The socialite is Frederic Cromwell.

Cromwell charged in the suit filed here yesterday that the exclusive University Club of San Francisco on Aug. 2, 1962, let him have a drink knowing that he had 'a medical and psychological ailment' that caused him to lose all control over drinking. He said that as a result, he fell, broke his pelvis, and became a permanent invalid.

Restricted Cotton Crop Estimate Below Last Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department today estimated this year's government-restricted cotton crop at 15,984,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight.

This is 6 per cent below last year.

The 1962 crop totaled 14,867,000 bales. The 1957-61 average was 13,125,000.

This year's crop is being grown under the minimum national planting allotment permitted by farm law designed to prevent over-production. The planted acreage has been estimated at 14,856,000 acres, down 9 per cent from last year's 16,293,000.

The government reduced acreage allotments and marketing quotas this year because of a big drop in cotton sales at home and abroad and a resulting increase in surplus stocks.

The department forecast this year's average yield of lint cotton per acre at 471 pounds compared with 457 last year and 440 for the five-year average.

Ross Valley Sanitary Board Adopts Budget

The Ross Valley Sanitary District board last night adopted a budget for 1963-1964 of $127,284, up $13,829 from last year's budget.

Manager Ralph C. Noah said last year's tax rate of 21 cents per $100 of assessed valuation would "probably" remain the same. He said it was the lowest tax rate of sanitary districts in the county.

Anti-Unification Group Is Formed

A formal organization pledged to kill the proposed unification of Tamalpais High School District and all elementary school districts within it was formed last night at a meeting of 15 persons at the Ross School.

It will be called the Citizens Committee Against the Unification of the Tamalpais District as a Whole. John R. B. Ellis of Kentfield suggested it should actually be called the "Citizens Committee Against the Monster."

The long name was necessary, according to host William A. Niccolls of the Ross School District board, because the group does not want to give the impression it is against school district unification per se.

He acknowledged there was no agreement to an alternative to the large unification proposed by the Augmented Committee on School District Organization.

John E. Cahill of 2 Madrone Avenue, Kentfield, was named chairman of the committee, which will have 15 members on an executive council to be headed by Cahill. There will be one representative from each elementary school district within the Tamalpais High School District, and a vice chairman and two secretaries.

Mrs. Walter Way of Ross was named secretary, and Mrs. John R. Rakow, corresponding secretary. Appointment of a vice chairman was deferred until the next meeting, tentatively set for 8 p.m. Aug. 22 at the Greenbrae School.

The first job of the group, Cahill said, will be to draw up a platform which will analyze the proposed plan and point out its faults and refute its claimed advantages. He said he would appoint a platform committee by the end of the week to start work.

He also said the group will need publicity and finance committees.

Winifred S. Frederick of Lagunitas said that Senate Bill 12, the school finance measure passed in the special session of the state legislature, may change the financial picture of the unification plan.

She said the county committee should be asked to rework its figures and added that the work might delay the public hearings on the Tamalpais District unification proposal.

Ellis said he doubted the county committee would agree to do the extra work.

The proposed platform of the group would deal only with district-wide issues, and local groups could then amend regional complaints, Cahill explained. He said that size and loss of local control affect all, but that different districts are affected differently on finances and program.

All districts are concerned about money in one way or another, Mrs. Frederick commented. "Districts with special programs will have a tough time trying to recover anything they lose," she claimed.

"Local control is also a common problem," she added. "The record of the Tamalpais High School District board's handling of groups within its area is well known."

Arlene Turns To Storm Again

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Arlene, the first, fickle lady of the hurricane season, turned into a tropical storm again and was expected to blast Bermuda with gale winds today.

Ships clocked her highest winds at 50 to 60 miles an hour in squalls and the Miami Weather Bureau said the intensity would increase to gale force.

At midnight, Arlene's center was located about 380 miles southwest of Bermuda, moving north-northeast at 14 miles an hour.

Larkspur Youth Is Booked For Battery, Drinking

An 18-year-old youth found wandering in the Heather Gardens subdivision of Larkspur was booked into Marin County Jail on suspicion of battery, resisting arrest and drunkenness yesterday after he grabbed a policeman by the throat.

Patrolman Edward McClintick said he twice had to subdue the youth, James Charles Orchard of 23 Midway Road, Larkspur.

McClintick said he found Orchard staggering in the middle of Heather Way about 3:55 a.m. on responding to a telephone alarm.

He said Orchard scuffled with him, then, as he was driving on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, the youth "grabbed me around the throat."

Orchard was held in lieu of $1,076.25 bail for appearance late today in Marin Municipal Court.

Two Drunken Drivers Fined

Two men were fined and put on six months probation yesterday for drunken driving.

Judge Harold J. Haley in Marin Municipal Court fined Carl Bent, 42, of San Francisco $149 and George Cecil Gothard, 30, of 7 Harbor View Court, San Rafael, $249.

Bent had pleaded guilty after being arrested April 20 by the California Highway Patrol on Highway 101 at the Corte Madera off-ramp. Gothard was found guilty after submitting his case on the basis of police reports. He was arrested April 14 by San Rafael police in front of 1303 Second Street, San Rafael.

Sausalito Police Check On Home-Made Bomb

Sausalito police are checking with the Criminal Investigation Department in Sacramento today, Police Chief Howard Goerndt said, to determine the type of powder used in a home-made bomb which was set off early yesterday in the doorway of the Gas Works, a bar and restaurant at 100 Caledonia Street.

No one was injured in the explosion.

Bolinas-Stinson Board Adopts School Budget

Final 1963-64 budget of $113,593 was adopted last night by Bolinas-Stinson Union School District trustees at a public hearing at which no citizen appeared.

It was the second year in a row, said clerk Arthur E. Carpenter, that no one showed up for the budget adoption.

The board was minus two trustees, Mrs. Harry Phillips and Mrs. Mildred Haroldsen, the latter being on vacation.

The expected operating tax rate for 1963-64 is $1.10 per $100 assessed valuation. Added to this is a six-cent override tax for the whole district and 11 cents for bond redemption for the Stinson Beach School area. Total tax rates are $1.16 for Bolinas and $1.27 for Stinson Beach.

Increase in the budget from last year's $93,105, Carpenter explained, is due mainly to increased teachers' salaries plus improvements to Bolinas school.

Next regular board meeting will be next Wednesday at 8 p.m. at Bolinas school.

Zellerbach Estate Left To Widow, Two Sons

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The will of James D. Zellerbach, placed in probate yesterday, left the bulk of his multi-million-dollar estate to his widow, Hana, and his sons, James and Richard.

The former U. S. ambassador to Italy and president of Zellerbach industries also willed $100,000 to his administrative assistant, Richard G. Shephard, San Francisco, and directed 15 per cent of his holdings to be given to charities and cultural associations.

Cape May, N.J., which began advertising for summer visitors in 1766, broke with tradition in the summer of 1963 when it opened an asphalt-surfaced "boardwalk."

COPTER LOADS UP WITH FREE GROCERIES—Putting a load of groceries aboard a helicopter at ground breaking for new Marin Products Co. plant in Ignacio are (from left) County Supervisor William A. Gnoss, Novato Mayor M. E. Silva, and George Silvestri and Fred Acciari of frozen good firm. They're really loading table tennis balls which were dropped from the copter—but each finder was entitled to a free package of Frosty Acres frozen vegetables. New Clemency Hearing Considered For Trio

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Acting Gov. Edmund M. Anderson is considering holding a new clemency hearing for three men scheduled to die in San Quentin's gas chamber next Wednesday, his office said today.

The trio — Joseph Rosoto, John Vlahovich and Donald Franklin — were denied clemency by Gov. Edmund G. Brown after a hearing in April.

The three were convicted of planning the murder of John I. Simpson of Anaheim, a witness in a robbery trial involving them.

John S. McInerny, the governor's clemency secretary, said two investigators from the State Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation went to Reno to talk to police about a lie detector test taken by someone identified by the trio as the trigger man in the killing.

McInerny said he could not comment on what the investigators found until a review by Anderson. He said Anderson will decide "within a day or two" whether to reopen the clemency action.

Four defense attorneys told Brown at the April hearing that there was "substantial doubt" that the three men convicted were the ones who planned the slaying.

Orange County Dist. Atty. Cecil Hicks told the governor he had been unable to obtain evidence to convict the man he believes actually killed Simpson. He identified the man as Ralph W. Johnson.

The investigators, Kenneth Horton and John Smoot, went to Reno to get testimony on a lie detector test taken by Johnson.

The three men convicted and Johnson, who was arrested but not convicted, all have denied any involvement in the murder.

Two Men Hurt As Auto Hits Parked Car

Two men were injured about 2:30 a.m. today when their car ran into a parked car in Terra Linda, the California Highway Patrol reported.

A car turning into Las Ovejas after being driven south on Del Grenada by John Skelton Jr., 22, of 73 Vallejo Way, Terra Linda, struck a parked auto owned by Donald Jupp in front of Jupp's home at 985 Las Ovejas. It then tore through several small trees, said Officer Charles Heart.

Skelton was treated at Marin General Hospital for cuts on right knee and right ear. He was cited for speeding.

A passenger with Skelton, William D .Cook, 23, of 10 Shasta Lane, Novato, was admitted to San Rafael General Hospital for severe face cuts. His condition today was good.

Racial Policy Will Stick

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —South Africa is expected to stick to its apartheid policy of racial segregation despite the U.N. Security Council's call for a worldwide arms embargo against the South African government.

There were indications that all U.N. members would not enforce the embargo. Secretary of State J. Rudolph Grimes of Liberia warned that African members would seek stronger measures in November unless South Africa changes its racial policy.

The embargo call was the key provision of a resolution the council adopted Wednesday by a 9-0 vote after debating apartheid for a week at the request of 32 African countries.

Britain and France abstained on the vote. Both have announced they are not shipping any arms to South Africa which, as Britain put it, "would enable the policy of apartheid to be enforced."

Viet Buddhists Go On Two-Day Hunger Strike

HUE, Viet Nam (AP)—A group of 108 Buddhists began a 48-hour hunger strike in this central Vietnamese holp city today to protest policies of President Ngo Dinh Diem's government.

Supporting them, nearly half the shops in the city closed down.

Eyewitness Tells Of U.S. Aid Diverted To Russia

An eyewitness account of how American foreign aid gets diverted to Russia came to Marin this week.

Don Bennett of 3 Harbor Drive, Corte Madera, received the description in a letter from a friend who is a merchant seaman.

The friend — whose name Bennett carefully deleted from the letter ("he'd get fired")— wrote from Alexandria, Egypt:

"Perpendicular to our stern is a Russian freighter. Then almost directly under our stern, at the corner of the wharf apron, is a heavy wooden barge from which a gang of ragged stevedores are off-loading a shipment of our foreign-aid powdered milk.

"This milk is toted, bag by bag, up an incline out of the barge and loaded on to long, narrow carts drawn by pitifully emaciated teams of horses. When each cart is filled, it is hauled down the wharf to alongside the Russian freighter, where it is reloaded.

"Some of our boys have taken photographs of this operation. We had always heard about this sort of thing but had never actually witnessed it."

Bennett planned to send the letter to Rep. Donald H. Clausen (R-Crescent City).

But Other Than That

CUMBERLAND, Ky. (AP) — Water Works Supt. Seabert Gilliam finally persuaded the City Council to buy him a new truck. The old one, he complained, couldn't be steered; wouldn't pull a hill; had a broken starter; and had no second gear.

Ground Is Broken For New Frozen Food Plant

Marin Products Co. broke ground yesterday for a new frozen food plant in Ignacio, which will occupy a two and one-half acre site.

To signal the start of the project, the company sent up a helicopter loaded with table tennis balls. And around each of the little celluloid pellets was a printed band entitling the finder to a free package of Frosty Acres frozen vegetables, which the firm distributes.

George Silvestri, president of Marin Products, said the new plant will have a capacity exceeding 200,000 cubic feet. It will have nine inches of insulation in ceiling and walls. The concrete floor will be atop four inches of styrafoam, under which will be gravel and ground and prevent its freezing.

The food freezer itself will be 120 by 80 feet, with an "air curtain" behind sliding doors to maintain temperature at 20 degrees below zero.

"This will be the largest frozen food distribution facility in Northern California," declared Silvestri.

The building will be of concrete tilt-up construction, built by Bayshore Construction Co. of Emeryville from plans by Nathan Karp and Associates, San Francisco architects. With its start, Marin Products becomes the first tenant of the new Hamilton Industrial Park adjoining Hamilton Air Force Base.

Marin Products was established April 1, 1946, at 801 A Street, San Rafael, and in 1951 constructed its present building at 700 A Street.

Lightning, a distinctly summer hazard, takes from 100 to nearly 200 lives annually.

TNT-Loaded Auto Blows Up In Sicily

PALERMO, Sicily (AP) — Another TNT-loaded car blew up in Palermo yesterday as police tightened the screws on the Sicilian Mafia.

It was the fifth bomb-rigged automobile to explode in the city in five weeks. No one was injured in the latest blast. The first two killed nine persons—seven of them policemen.

How one growing business gives employment a boost in California

And here's how Pacific Telephone keeps pace with this growth:

Back in 1951, Aerojet-General, one of the country's leading producers of rocket engines, had less than 2,500 employees in California. Today, it employs more than 19,000 in its Sacramento plant alone. Expansion like this goes far in helping to meet the employment need in growing California, now the nation's first state in population.

But business expansion depends heavily upon the availability of a wide variety of communications facilities. Aerojet, for example, requires about 9,000 telephones at Sacramento, plus a complex data transmission system and a large range of other specialized communications equipment. In planning ahead to meet the need of job-making firms like Aerojet, Pacific Telephone is spending over a million dollars a day adding and improving business and residence phone services in California. Yet, telephone rates in this state are among the lowest in the nation.

Novato's Backyard Train Gang Keeps Old Tradition Alive

By LOREN MacARTHUR

The Novato Western Pacific, right on schedule, roared around the bend toward Walnut Flat. Suddenly, in the distance, the engineer saw a large animal sprawled on the tracks. The train skidded to a stop in the nick of time.

The fact that the engine was 38½ inches high, the rails 7½ inches apart and 200 feet long, and the hugs beast only the family cat, didn't bother the crew in the slightest.

They're the backyard train gang from Novato. They built the track, train and engine from the ground up, with a flair that would have done proud the Chinese coolies who laid the Union Pacific tracks across the Sierra.

Their train does a cool seven miles an hour.

"Just say we're old railroad fans," instructed Michael Pechner, a 16-year-old trainman who'll be a junior at Novato High School next month.

The "we" includes his sidekick Thomas White, entering his senior year at the high school, and the "electronic brains" of the trio, College of Marin student Roger Graeber.

The youths broke ground for their railroad July 10 last year in White's backyard at 1661 Novato Boulevard. Since then they've used pick and shovel to level and grade the 200-foot circular track, which even crosses a bridge after leaving Acacia Springs (the backyard water faucet under an acacia tree.

"It's built to one-sixteenth inch precision, "said Pechner. "If it were off any more, the train would derail."

The rails are made of redwood siding spiked down to ties and topped with strips of metal.

The engine itself is a black bomb built to look, the boys say, like an industrial switcher called the Hustler. Early plans to make it gasoline-powered hit the wastebasket after the engineer decided the reversing mechanism was too complicated.

The trio's mentor, train aficionado Gordon Adams of Fairfax, suggested a change to an electric motor.

"When we come into the station, we plug a six-volt charger into the engine," explained White, president of the company. "It's the same principle as an electric battery."

Pechner, vice president and general manager, admits to an occasional derailment. "We get it back on the track with the big hook." he said. "I'm the big hook.

"We plan to use a crowbar when we have guests. It has more class."

Graeber, busy with a summer job and his electronic technician training classes at College of Marin, has supplied electronic know-how. " I didn't get involved in this," he said. "They involved me. Michael Pechner came at me with this harebrained scheme . . ."

The scheme grew and grew until Graeber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Graeber of Novato, had promised to install a completely electronic switching system, including red lights that will switch on when the train approaches a crossing or the "yard" and swinging signals for car crossings.

"This isn't a toy," Pechner emphasized. "We built everything at one-eighth scale as close to railroad standards as we could get it. If you figure it by scale, we have a four per cent grade. That's very steep. And figuring the speed on scale, the train goes 56 miles an hour."

"We plan to haul fruit for my parents," explained White, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. White, whose ample backyard is filled with walnut and plum trees.

"We've spent about $14 each so far. We've used a lot of scrap parts," added White.

In store for youngsters in the neighborhood are rides on the train, at three or five cents—"whatever it costs to cover expenses," said White.

"The engine easily holds 300 pounds," said Pechner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Pechner of Novato. "Three of us got on at once, and went the route."

Expansion plans include installation of a round table, extending the track around the house, and building a tunnel. "And," said Pechner, "the golden spike ceremony."

NOVATO WESTERN PACIFIC—Thomas White rings the bell, Michael Pechner climbs aboard and Roger Graeber checks the track for the late afternoon run of the Novato Western Pacific. They built the train and tracks from the ground up.

Castro Memorial Night Is Planned

A "Walter Castro Memorial Night" will be held at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 15 by the Marin Civic Center Lions Club.

Supervisor Peter Behr will speak on "Rapid Transit for Marin" during the dinner meeting at Nave Lanes in Ignacio.

C. M. (Maury) Ingham will make a memorial presentation for the late supervisor, who was also a strong proponent of rapid transit, said Ben Barton, program chairman. Reservations chairmen are Ray Knapp and Robert Bourne.

Report On Aqueduct To Dry Creek Due

A report on the cost of a Sonoma-Marin aqueduct to Dry Creek will be presented at 8 p.m. next Wednesday to representatives of the Marin Municipal Water District, North Marin Water District, and Sonoma County Board of Supervisors at the Sonoma County courthouse in Santa Rosa.

This study is a three-way undertaking of the three boards, according to Jerome B. Gilbert, North Marin District manager. The final report on the study will be given in about two months, he said.

No need for the third degree . . . we admit

We sell only at a profit . . . every time

We're in the midst of our annual model-end clearance activities, so we've cut our profit margins down to the bare minimum on every new car and truck and used car in stock—and we've got quite a stock on hand—virtually every model color, and equipment option available.

But, we refuse to insult your intelligence by claiming we'll take a deal with "one dollar profit," or "profit is not important," or that we'll sell "at cost," as some of the more frantic and less principled dealers do, particularly at this time of year.

Frankly, the profit we make on the sale of new Fords and used cars is the only source of income we have. There is no rich uncle in the background to help us—and, we get no concessions from the factory (neither do any other dealers). We just rely on a very simple formula for making money—we sell at a smaller unit profit than any dealer we know of, and we work like mad to sell more and more at these reduced margins to make sure these small unit profits ultimately add up to enough to pay our expenses and obligations and give us a reasonable return on our investment.

100 Laws Affecting Schools Were Passed By Legislature

Nearly 100 laws affecting schools were adopted this year by the state legislature.

They range from bond elections to kindergarten classes, and most of the new legislation will soon involve the operation of Marin school districts.

Changes in school election codes alone make up 120 pages of legislation and include the requirement that bond elections be conducted by the county superintendent of schools instead of by the school district.

Under old election rules, bond elections were called and administered by the district. Changes require the county superintendent's office to handle such elections, along with trustee and special tax elections, already under the county office.

Asst. County Supt. Rudolph S. Kupfer said the new bond election requirements will mean that the proposed Larkspur School District election for a $700,000 bond issue will probably be delayed until December. The new law becomes effective Sept. 20, 90 days after adjournment of the legislature. Proper notice for the election must be completed 75 days before the election, and it is "impossible now to legally comply under the old law," Kupfer said.

Bond elections in San Rafael and San Anselmo, already scheduled for September and early October, will not be affected by the new law, said Kupfer and Asst. County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney.

Kupfer feels the law putting all elections under one authority is "an improvement," for it allows one office to call an election, select precincts and tally votes. "The old law made absolutely no sense," he said. He pointed out that last April's trustee elections were operated from the county office, while Dixie and Kentfield school district bond elections at the same time were handled on the district level.

A new law concerning school district organization may upset a campaign now under way for unionization of seven Marin and Sonoma school districts within Tomales High School District. The new law requires petitioners for unionization to submit their proposal to the state board of education within 20 days after petitions are completed.

The old law allows county superintendents to call a unionization election after petitions are submitted, without approval of the state board.

Maloney doubts whether the proposed Marin-Sonoma unionization will be affected by the change, since petitions are in the hands of county superintendents already, and an election can be ordered before the new law becomes effective.

The state board has rejected Tomales High unification schemes involving the same elementary districts twice already.

Other laws which may have some impact on education in Marin include:

School didstrict boards will no longer be required to conduct organizational meetings on July 1. They may instead meet for reorganization any day between July 1 and July 15.

Kindergarten pupils may, subject to state board rules, be allowed ot enroll in the first grade regardless of age if they are ready for first grade work.

High school students may enroll in junior college courses and receive college credit, provided the high school principal and school boards involved approve programs.

School textbooks which are obsolete may be given to students. "In the past," said Kupfer, "they could be given to just about anyone except a student."

District boards may hire "reader assistants" for teachers to aid in correction and assignment of class work.

Several new laws were enacted establishing "minimum subject" requirements for elementary school teachers.

State aid for "culturally deprived" children will be authorized in areas with underprivileged populations.

Ginger Hassilev Files For Divorce

Ginger Hassilev filed a divorce against her husband, Alex, a member of the Limelighters folksinging trio, yesterday in Marin County Superior Court.

Mrs. Hassilev asked custody of the couple's son, David, and a share of the ownership or stock in several corporations. The couple have lived at 324 Edgewood Avenue, Mill Valley, but Hassilev is now reported on his way to New York following the breakup of the singing group.

The wife also asked for a "reasonable" amount for support, saying she has been receiving about $2,000 a month from her husband for herself and her child.

Muir Beach Meeting Set On Water

Muir Beach Community Services District directors last night agreed to hold a special meeting within the next two weeks to seek a temporary solution to the community's water problems. No date was set.

Many residents of the sea village haul their own water for drinking because well water is considered too salty and rusty.

The board will hear a proposal from Miwok Corp., which has suggested formation of a "Seascape Mutual Water Co." to develop its own water source. Miwok plans a 54-acre single-family residential subdivision above Muir Beach.

A survey of the district's tanksite was presented to the board by engineers Oglesby, Jacobs and Wickham of San Rafael, but the 50,000 gallon water tank, which has been ordered purchased, will not be located pending outcome of the special meeting.

The board was informed that the survey reveals that of the two present water tanks, one is not on district ground and the other is only partially on district ground. Engineers researched old Spanish maps to make the survey, said Mrs. Gates R. King, acting district president.

Boy Pulled Safely Out Of Mine Shaft After Hour

PITTSBURG (AP) — Ronald Buffo, 15, was pulled safely out of a 65-foot mine shaft yesterday after spending over an hour on his back looking up at "that little hole in the sky."

He suffered minor injuries.

Two friends were lowering him into the old shaft with a rope. It broke when he was half way down, dropping him to soft ground at the bottom.

Two Pacific Gas and Electric Co. linemen, Curtis Law of Pleasanton and Orville Gilbert of Walnut Creek, climbed down and rescued him.

"It was pretty gruesome," Buffo confided at his Pittsburg home. "I was knocked out, I guess, and then I woke up and I was lying on my back and I looked up and all I could see was that little hole in the sky."

Colt Boss Had Sense Enough To Bunt, It Won Last Night's Game

CONNOLLY

Chances don't look too good for S.F. Giant players to enjoy a free ride on the winter banquet circuit this year. Too many of 'em, they say, did enough free loading after the 1962 world's series to last 'em for a good spell. It was real fun while it lasted, but whether it was worth the price remains to be seen.

One of the Giant players who did a lot of parading, talking and so forth, was pitcher Jack Sanford, who last night pitched his heart out in a losing cause. Sanford outpitched Turk Farrell of the Houston Colts but his teammates failed him in the clutch.

THE FACT that a measely sacrifice bunt won the game for Houston, might tend to irrate Manager Alvin Dark, the Giant skipper, who can't see any percentage in bunting or sacrificing when he has home run hitters on the payroll.

Well, Harry Craft, manager of the Colts, admits Sanford outpitched his starter Farrell, but when the blue chips were down, Craft had the sense to sacrifice and win the game.

Had Sanford been on the beam all season as he was last night he wouldn't be sporting a 10 win and 12 loss record. Manager Dark has lectured Sanford until he was pink in the face but Alvin's sermons didn't catch on soon enough. And now that Sanford is firing hard and concentrating nicely, he is in the unhappy state of pitching too good, too late. A guy with the stuff Sanford has, and the competitive heart, has to have lost the "touch" to wind up like he threatens to finish after 25 wins in 1962.

What is said about Sanford not paying attention to his chores earlier in the year, can apply to other Giant players who liked the limtlight of the lamp-lighter parade.

LAST winter wherever crowds gathered the Giant players were there to take the accolades.

There is no reason yet to roll over and play dead but there is no joy in mudville today. Those Colts drove the first spike in the Giant coffin taking 2 out of 3 in the series and are sending our brave lads into Philly on a wing and a prayer.

Maybe the Giants can rally some more, or once again, if you want it that way, but from where we sit the blow that killed father has landed, and for the rest of the way they'll have to depend on "another miracle" happening like the one in 1962.

CHUB FEENEY, vice president of the Giants, really sounded the key note to Giant players some time ago when he remarked: "I never saw so many ball players who care less for money than our gang."

That means only one thing. The buy who pays off the Giants intends to crease the paycheck, and how.

It was hard for the Giant management last spring to take a bite out of players after feasting on the World Series dough. But now that it looks real shaky, some of the players won't be too hard to sign, even before the season ends.

It took a lot of courage and figuring for Manager Dark to predict that his club could win the pennant if they were no farther behind than two or three games off the pace.

THE DARK "minus and plus" system can stand a little revising today after a squeaky win by the Colts last night, plunging the S.F. aggregation six big games in arrears.

But in placing the blame for last night's loss, remember Felipe Alou, hit into a double play in the eighth and Harvey Kuenn did it again in the ninth.

So cheer up fellows. Mom used to say there will be days when you can't make a dime.

A MIXED UP POP FLY

Whatever affliction the New York Mets have, this pair of St. Louis Cardinals, Dal Maxwell (27), and George Altman, seemed yesterday to have caught it as they pirouetted about the portion of the short right field in the Polo Grounds where the Mets' Duke Snider lofted a pop fly in the third inning. Cards' hurler Ernie Broglio escaped without a score in the inning, but was bombed for four runs in the fourth as the Mets won 7-3. (AP Wirephoto)

Giants Rest Today After 1-0 Setback

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Scowling Jack Sanford and the San Francisco Giants moved into Philadelphia today for a four-game series with the Phils—and nobody denied the burly pitcher's right to scowl a little.

The big righthander tossed a nifty three-hitter against Houston last night, only to lose a 1-0 decision which dropped the Giants six full games behind the league-leading Los Angeles Dodgers.

The Giants, who open their series with the Phils tomorrow night, got nine hits off Houston's Dick Farrell but he held them scoreless with a steady barrage of blazing fast balls.

The San Francisco team appeared as though it might pull the contest out of the fire in the ninth inning, when the Giants had men on first and third with only one away. But Hal Woodeshick came on for Farrell and got Harvey Kuenn, San Francisco's leading hitter, to ground into a double play.

Houston scored the only run in the fourth frame on two of the Colts' three hits, a bunt and a sacrifice fly. The only other Houston runner to reach first base was Rusty Staub, who singled in the second—and was promptly picked off by Sanford.

Farrell muffled San Francisco's explosive power, leaving eight Giants stranded. Orlando Cepeda had two singles, but Willie McCovey fanned twice before connecting for a double and Willie Mays got only one single in four trips to the plate.

The victory gave Houston two victories in the three-game series and its fifth triumph in six games with the Giants at home.

Post Attorneys Rest Case

ATLANTA (AP) — Attorneys for former Georgia coach Wally Butts begin their rebuttal today in the wake of a federal judge's declaration that a magazine article charging Butts and Alabama coach Paul Bear Bryant rigged a football game was libelous on its face.

Attorney William H. Schroder Jr. said Butts may take the stand today in 10-million-dollar libel suit he has filed against Curtis Publishing Co., publishers of the Saturday Evening Post. Bryant, Schroder said, probably will testify tomorrow along with other coaches and players.

The rebuttal began after U.S. District Judge Louis R. Morgan, who yesterday termed the magazine's March 23 story "libelous per se," refused a directed verdict in favor of Butts. Judge Morgan said it was up to the jury to decide whether the Post, in less than three days of testimony, had proved its charges were true. Attorneys for the publishing company rested their case, in a surprise step, late yesterday.

The magazine charged in its March 23 issue that Butts, then Georgia's athletic director, leaked vital Georgia football information to Bryant before the 1962 game between their schools.

Frank Graham Jr., free-lance writer who assembled the story for the Post, said in written testimony yesterday that he based the story on an affidavit in which insurance salesman George P. Burnett said he overheard a telephone call from Butts to Bryant last Sept. 13, nine days before the game.

Schroder and another Butts attorney, Allen Lockerman, read the testimony into the record.

In the deposition, Graham said he met and interviewed Burnett in Atlanta but that he wrote the article without seeing notes Burnett said he took while listening to Butts and Bryant on the telephone.

Dodgers Win In Extra Innings; Cards Clipped

By U. P. International

Chalk up two more strikeout records for Sandy Koufax today and get ready to induct the Los Angeles Dodger fireballer into the exclusive 300 club.

Only three major league pitchers — Walter Johnson, Rube Waddell and Bob Feller —ever struck out 300 batters in a season but Koufax remained right on the 300 timetable yesterday when he struck out 11 batters in the Dodgers' 3-1, 11-inning triumph over the Chicago Cubs.

Koufax' 11 strikeouts lifted his season total to 210 in 213 innings and made him the first National League left-hander to record three consecutive 200-strikeout seasons. It also was a league record 48th time in which he has struck out 10 or more batters in a game.

The 6-foot, 2-inch, 210-pound southpaw has between 10 and 12 starts and between 90 and 100 innings of pitching left to him this season. At his rate of approximately a strikeout an inning, Sandy should just about make 300, although he is unlikely to challenge Feller's mark of 348 set in 1946. Top totals for Johnson and Waddell, for purposes of comparison, were 313 and 343, respectively.

Koufax is almost certain to surpass his own N.L. mark of 269 established in 1961.

Koufax turned over a tie game to relief ace Ron Perranoski and the latter gained his 11th win of the season when the Dodgers came up with two runs in the 11th inning on Tommy Davis' homer, singles by Willie Davis and Al Ferrera and an error by Ellis Burton.

The victory enabled the Dodgers to increase their N.L. lead to six games when the Houston Colts topped the San Francisco Giants, 1-0, and the New York Mets surprised the St. Louis Cardinals, 7-3. The Philadelphia Phillies beat the Cincinnati Reds, 2-1, and the Pittsburgh Pirates shaded the Milwaukee Braves, 5-4, in other N.L. action.

In the American League, New York defeated Washington, 9-1, Chicago beat Kansas City, 7-3, Detroit nipped Boston, 5-4, Cleveland topped Baltimore, 4-1, and Minnesota scored a 9-4 victory over Los Angeles.

Fairchild And Bushers Win

Bob Brown of the Fairchild Semiductors and Chris Christenson of the Terra Linda Merchants each hurled a three hitter last night, and although Christenson struck out 12 to Brown's seven, Fairchild still won the class A ball game in the San Rafael Recreation Department's softball league, 3-2.

In class B action, a three-run home run by Mike Cicero paced the Bushers over Perry's Delicatessen 7-3.

Eagle Lake And All Its Inhabitants Form A Very Mysterious Combo

We explored Eagle Lake, a huge lazy-blue mysterious pool that lies in a paradox of desert—and sky-skimming pine forests, 16 miles out of Susanville. The animals, retiles, fish and fowl contest with the emotions of a timeless body of water that continue to baffle scientists. They are still scratching heads and mulling over the behavior of the lake upon the life that lies within and beyond its sea fossil banks. It's the concensus that the unusual content may be a prime contributing factor to the strange goings-on. Significant, are the are the "Dalmatian" polke-dot rocks that make up some of the shore-line; victims of constant mineralized-water spray.

It was almost evening when we saw two young teenagers in a row boat. They were shouting at us, "Hey . . . please help us find our oar—"

CHUGGING about, we soon found it and handed it to them. Apparently it was their one and only oar. "Can't afford another one yet," the freckled-faced kid said. "Soon's we sell these--" and his hand gestured to half gallon jars in the bottom of the boat—"we'll have enough money." Then, noticing our curiousity, he hoisted one of the jars, setting it on the seat. Then another and another—

Now, for heaven's sake—who hasn't seen a garter snake? A-ha! But not one of these. They were jungle-bizarre, having weird coloring, like nothing ever reported in text books. One jar held squirming, small-ish rattle snakes of a mixed up specie resulting from some unholy misalliance betwixt desert and timber rattlers. And then finally there was this jar of bugs.

Now, our vacationing familiarity with insects was highly colored by resentment, being well informed only on mosquitos and schizophrenes of the fly tribe that were born outfited with fangs. And we had the lumps and lacerations to prove it.

WHAT ARE they?" we asked in polite indifference, planning to re-start our motor.

"Oh, them. We found them in an ice cave. They're a kind of snail . . . supposed to be a descendent from the ice age." We took a closer look, feeling they must be kidding. Imagine something half cockroach, quarter cricket and quarter walrus—and yet sort of snail-ish too.

Hosted by the U. S. Forest Service, our camp site was on the immediate lake front. There was plenty of wood for the built-in concrete BBQ pit. The water was cold, refreshing and delightfully primitive. You got in line with a bucket, taking your turn at the old pump handle.

EVENINGS were the time of gorgeous cotton-candy sunsets. The voice of the fishing dissertationist rose. The sound of the straggling boaters coming in was heard; and camp-fire cooking scented the air.

And alas, came then, the buzz of the mosquito. But, exactly where does one camp near water and not find them?

Eagle Lake is one of the state's largest bodies of fresh water and it is remarkably clear. It is 16 miles long and four miles wide. Someone who didn't know an eagle when they saw one, named it Eagle Lake. What they had actually seen was the osprey with its immense wingspread.

Once the lake was only a corner of Lake Lahontan which covered most of Nevada, and was greater in size than Lake Erie. Over the ages, these primeval waters of Lake Lahontan receded and Eagle Lake remains.

THE FISH are a mystery, too; one specie especially is a mystery that ichthyologists have named Eagle Lake Trout —salo acquilarum. A few experts say it is the only trout of pure strain, left on earth today. The California Division of Fish and Game spent years studying Eagle Lake trout. Regular rainbow trout planted in these waters always die.

This is a wonder-land for the water skiers. They take off from the sandy Gallatin Beach area all day long. This is at the south end of the lake. Campers swim here also, but are fully protected by a well-marked area.

At the nearby marina there is a good launching service by ramp and there are boat and motor rentals. Groceries can be purchased. There is also a snack bar, beer, fishing tackle and parallel service.

In his sixth year of teaching, Finn has served as assistant at the Meadow Club under Bob Moore; at Coral d'Tierra Country Club in Salinas; at the North Shore Country Club north of Chicago, and most recently under George Splane at the Marin Country Club.

Bob Finn Is New Golf Pro At Peacock Gap

He started as assistant under Bob Moore at the Meadow Club in 1958, after attending St. Anselm's School, Marin Catholic High and College of Marin. From the Meadow Club he moved in 1959 to the Coral d'Tierra Country Club in Salinas, where he spent three years as assistant.

Finn was born in San Francisco, and moved to Marin County at the age of three. He is a class A member of the Professional Golfers Assn.

NET ACTION TOMORROW

Tennis Tourney To Start

The 11th annual Marin Junior Tennis Tournament, co-sponsored by the Independent-Journal and the San Rafael Recreation Department, will get under way tomorrow at 9 a.m. at the Albert Park courts.

Recreation and Park Director Joseph D. Rodota reports more than 90 entries for the tournament, which annually attracts the best young players in the county. Since each player can compete in three events, the competition in the ten singles divisions and four doubles classes is certain to be fierce.

Two new groups have been created as a result of Rodota's decision to conform to the United States Lawn Tennis Assn. groupings. Formerly, the Marin tournament had classifications for boys and girls under 18, 15, 13 and 11. This year the divisions are under 18, 16, 14, 12 and 10. The four doubles events are for boys and girls under 18 and under 16.

The singles will continue into the second round Saturday, and then the tournament will recess until next Thursday, when the third singles round and the first doubles matches will be played. Quarterfinal and semifinal matches are scheduled for Friday, Aug. 16, and final matches will be played the following day.

It's A Tight Chase In Drake's Cage League

Marin Catholic, trailing Riordan 38-32 after three quarters, rallied behind Tom Soden's eight points in the final period and pulled out a 56-53 victory last night to remain undefeated in the high school division of the Drake summer basketball league.

The race is heading for a showdown next week as the Wildcats (6-0) face San Rafael (5-1) Wednesday in the final game for each, after Redwood, also 5-1, plays its last game against Lick-Wilmerding (2-4) Tuesday. Both games are at 7 p.m.

Last night Jim Halm scored 29 points to lead the Giants past Drake 58-41. Soden ended up with 19 for Marin Catholic, but Tom O'Neil took scoring honors with 31 for Riordan, now 3-3. Tam tied Lick-Wilmerding for fifth place at 2-4 by clipping the Tigers 42-36, and San Rafael won a 1-0 forfeit from Terra Linda. The Trojans and Drake Pirates are last with 0-6 marks.

Senators Win Midget Loop World Series

The San Anselmo Recreation Department's Midget League World Series ended last night the way it began Tuesday evening: the American Champion Senators had too much pitching for the National League Champion Giants and beat them 7-1. Tuesday the score was 4-1.

Tim Haggerty supported Randy Johnson's fine pitching last night by hitting two home runs and a single and making some good plays on defense. The losing pitcher was Mike Salkin, who had hurled a no-hitter Monday night to put the Giants in the World Series.

Tuesday young Haggerty had struck out 13 Giants and allowed only two hits in stifling the Giants. Mike Armstrong ripped three singles for the winners in a game marked by the fine defensive play of both catchers, Bob Conti of the Giants and Mike Goslinger of the Senators.

Schedules Cruise

The Marin Power Squadron has scheduled a cruise at Delta Marina in Rio Vista, San Joaquin Valley, Aug. 31-Sept. 2. Reservations may be made with Rex Thompson of 25 Dorset Lane, Mill Valley.

A YOUNG 66 . . .

He Hopes For 200 MPH

By WILLIAM OLCOTT

VAN NUYS (AP) — Late this month, Norm Thatcher hopes to become the first driver to go 200 miles an hour in a production stock-bodied sedan.

Thatcher, 66, thinks he's the nation's oldest active competitor.

He'll make his record try Aug. 18-24 at the national speed trials over the salt flats at Bonneville, Utah.

Why does he keep at it at an age when most men have retired?

"It's something I've wanted to do all my life," he explained. "Everybody sets up goals for themselves. One of mine is to go 200 m.p.h. in a passenger car."

In 1913, at 16, Thatcher raced a Flanders "20" at Pulaski Fairgrounds in Pennsylvania at a speed of 57 m.p.h. In 1914, he drove 63 m.p.h. in a four-cylinder car and in 1922 he sped across Murros Dry Lake in California at 147 m. p. h. in Miller Straight Eights and Dusenbergs.

"I feel I'm good for three or four more years," Thatcher said. "Whenever my reflexes go, I'll quit but that hasn't happened yet. My doctor examined me recently and told me I have the blood pressure of a 16-year-old."

Thatcher has a son and daughter and five grandchildren.

He believes experience makes up for whatever physical attributes have faded.

"Experience makes a man sense danger quicker," he said. His record is unmarked by accident.

His car has roll bars which prevent the body from caving in of the car rolled over. A parachute is in the rear to brake the auto on the flats.

Thatcher holds record times for the fastest production stock-bodied passenger sedan in supercharged and non-supercharged classes.

He set the record for passenger cars last year when he piloted a 1962 model to an average two-way speed of 189.8 m.p.h.

Fear is a stranger to him when he drives on the flats but on the California freeways he's "scared to death."

Scattered Reports Indicate Good Deer Hunting South Of Bay Area

STEVENS

Seems like a flock of F&G lads can chortle "I told you so!" All late releases from the Fish and Game predicted good hunting to the north of the Bay area, and not so good to the south. Judging by the scattered reports that have come in to me, that prediction was correct.

A bigger crowd of deer slayers infested Mendocino County — especially the lands adjacent to the Mendocino National Forest—than last year. An estimated increase of about 40 per cent. A bigger bag was reported also.

A COUPLE of neighborhood nimrods, John De Vinceinzi Ralph Duncan made the grade with evidence in the shape of a dandy three pointer hanging in the meat emporium of De-Vinceinzi, in Oakland.

I understand the South Bay boys who stalked their prey on the slopes of Mount Diablo slew 15 legal bucks, but I have no reports of results in Marin, Napa or Contra Costa counties.

ED VOLPE called to report that he, with Steve Rubiola, had fun drift fishing between the G.G. Bridge and Alcatraz. "We caught four bass, one large rockfish, and a mess of Spanish Mackerel," he related, and asked: "Isn't it unusual to catch mackerel in this area?"

Not very unusual. But I wonder if Ed and Steve, and dozens of other drifters, caught true makerel. Everyone terms the fish, a "Spanish Mackerel" which isn't really a mackerel, but is a jack. If what they were catching had rather a thick pair of lips and has the two dorsal fins close together, chances are it was a jack. If the two dorsal fins are set well apart and there are five or six finlets between the second dorsal fin and the tail, as well as five or six finlets between the anal fin and the tail, it is a true Pacific mackerel.

BUT, JACK or mackerel, they do frequent these waters from time to time. They can be caught on lures, live or cut bait. They put up a very weak fight, but on light tackle it isn't so bad. It is said one must cultivate a taste in order to order them in a restaurant, but, personally, I like them. I have caught many of them down south and can appreciate the expression "Dead as a mackerel." They are often quite dead by the time they are brought aboard a boat.

Striper striving and salmon trolling continues to be from fair to excellent in most Bay spots other than the upper San Pablo. It seems to be still a hit - or - miss proposition, although the chosen few have taken fish.

Former Marin Swim Stars Selected As All-American

Former Marin high school stars Dave Corbet and Pete Sagues, now seniors at San Jose State College, have been selected all-American swimmers by the Collegiate Swimming Coaches Assn. of America.

Corbet, son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Corbet of 21 Acorn Way, Kentfield, swam for Redwood High. Sagues, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor F. Sagues of 195 Van Winkle Drive, San Anselmo, attended Sir Francis Drake High. They are 21 years old, and star on both the swimming team and water polo team at San Jose State.

Both Corbet and Sagues were pupils of Beth Kaufman on the Marin Pirates swimming team.

Lagunitas School Budget Set

Trustees of Lagunitas School District Tuesday adopted a budget of $187,423 for fiscal 1963-64 that "watches every corner," according to Supt. Clifford L. Frye.

Despite the tight budget, there will still be 16 teachers on the faculty. Prior to an unsuccessful election July 2 on a proposed 75-cent tax increase, district officials said the faculty would have to be cut by two if the measure were defeated.

Frye said today the staff is being maintained because of additional money anticipated under a new state appropriation bill.

About 15 persons attended last night's budget hearing. There was no protest, but there were several questions, Frye said.

The Lagunitas School District board also:

1. Accepted the resignation of Duane Dingman as custodian and hired Alfred Austad as his replacement.

2. Applied for a $40,000 advance from the county on anticipated tax revenues.

3. Discussed purchase of a replacement bus for one the district has operated for 15 years.

3 Windows Broken

Someone broke three window panes in the rear door of the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Vreeland at 36 Magee Avenue, Mill Valley Tuesday, entered, spilled grape juice on the kitchen floor, and cut a cantaloupe but left it untouched, Mrs. Vreeland reported to police at 7:58 p.m. Nothing was reported taken.

Peri Park Suggested In Fairfax

The Fairfax Park and Recreation Commission recommended Tuesday night that the Park Road playground near the firehouse be named Andy Peri Memorial Playground.

Peri was police chief from the incorporation of Fairfax in 1931 until his death Dec. 30, 1959, and in earlier years was constable.

Thomas C. Peck, commission chairman, said the $1,045 Andy Peri Memorial Fund, contributed by organizations and citizens, would go toward financing the playground improvements.

Re-development of the playground is expected to be completed next month, he said.

Ronald C. Samet, recreation director, reported the summer program has been successful.

Samet reported to Fairfax police yesterday that someone broke into the Fairfax Pavilion over the weekend and stole a case of soft drinks. Police said entry was gained through a rear door.

Wharf Road Traffic Is Requested

A letter to county supervisors from Clarence L. Feusier "on behalf of many Bolinas residents" Tuesday appealed for reversal of prohibition of vehicular traffic on Wharf Road, termed "one of our oldest and most-used access roads to the beach."

Closure because of complaints of a few, said Feusier, has curtailed activities of the whole community. He said Wharf Road is not exclusively residential, being zoned commercial, and that tidal movement naturally curtails access to some extent.

Supervisor Peter Behr commended "a temperate letter" but said he was not convinced it spoke for the majority. He asked Parks and Recreation Director Kelvin J. Nelson to review the situation.

Exhibition On Cancer To Arrive In Marin

A traveling exhibit on cancer sponsored by the American Cancer Society will arrive in Marin Friday and appear in various locations throughout the county until the end of August.

Theme of the trailer exhibit is "Cancer Can Be Cured. Find Out How." The exhibit will show graphic displays of cancer, aids for recognition and prevention, tools for curing cancer, and news of the latest advances in research. Marin doctors and society volunteers will staff the trailer.

Schedule for the trailer is: Corte Madera Shopping Center, Friday and Saturday; Bullard Co., 2780 Bridgeway, Sausalito, Tuesday; Fairchild Co., off Highway 101 north of San Rafael, Aug. 19; Safeway store, Novato, Aug. 21-22; Hamilton Air Force Base, Aug. 23 and 26-28, and outside the Marin County Courthouse in San Rafael, Aug. 29-30. The unit may be shown at the Civic Center Aug. 14-16.

Air Force Unit Aids Forecast

BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI)—The forecast is for a speedier weather service. It's all part of the Air Force's operation "Big Blue."

A new airborne electronic "brain" system designed to gather data for both military and civilian operations is being installed in the USAF's Air Weather Service B-47 jet aircraft.

The date from the planes will be automatically transmitted to ground-station computers and will be available for study within minutes, according to the Bendix Corp., its developer.

FROM ALPHA TO OMEGA

Yesterday Marin members of sorority alumnae associations gathered 400 strong to form the largest crowd ever to attend the Northgate Group's summer luncheons and fashions shows at the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross. Marin Panhellenic, sponsor for the day, provided the mannequins and waitresses. Here models are Mrs. E. C. Sargent of Kappa Kappa Gamma, reflected in mirror, left, and Mrs. Dorothy Wagner of Chi Omega, don finishing accessories backstage during the style show.

WILD, WILD WESTERN

The Italian sportive takes to a Wild West mood as designer Veneziana of Milan creates this hood and jacket combination for fall. The chamoise jacket is designed with sleeves that melt into the sides for a cape-like effect and features a wide fringe at the hemline. The hood is part of the grey wool sweater worn under the jacket. (UPI photo)

A Leader For Women Of Cambodia

EDITOR'S NOTE: You may never have heard of Mme. Pung Peng Cheng, but she's typical of the women emerging as leaders of the developing countries of Asia. And when you read about this dynamic little housewife, you're not likely to forget her.

MME. PUNG PENG

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP)—In her sarong-like sampot and bright flowered blouse, Mme. Pung Peng Cheng, plump, dimpled and 43, looks about as little like a movie star as you could find.

Yet she's made it—in her first and only picture.

And she's one of the few who can say — in either the jungles of Hollywood or Cambodia:

"I did it for the good of my country."

The movie, now on a run in United States art houses, is a Franco-Italian production called "Your Shadow Is Mine."

Filmed among the famed ruins of Angkor Wat in the Cambodian jungles, it has been praised for its photography and panned for a few dozen other reasons. Or as one New York critic put it:

"Indeed, it is so amateurish —so crudely directed and played—that it has the look of a hapless home movie that was put together by a local cine club on weekends and holidays."

THE CRITICISM doesn't disturb Mme. Pung Peng Cheng. She has already accomplished her objective—putting this little Southeast Asian nation on the cinematic map.

When not performing among the ruins, Mme. Pung Peng Cheng is a member of the National Assembly. She was the first woman member when elected five years ago, and is one of only two in the Assembly today.

"When women were given the right to vote in 1958, I ran because I decided they should have a woman representing them in the Assembly," she explains.

Mme. Pung Peng Cheng is a good sample of the women emerging as leaders in developing Asia. Packing more power than their U.S. counterparts, they pull along their retiring sisters who often clamor for women's rights — then aren't certain how to exercise them.

How did she land in a motion picture?

"I was at a reception," she says, "when the producer of the film approached me and said I would be the perfect type to be cast as the mother, Mate.

"I EXPLAINED that I had never had any acting experience. But he said it wasn't necessary. They did give me a screen test. I was still reluctant. But I was told it was a motion picture which would show the world Cambodia and it was my duty to perform in it.

"It wasn't very pleasant — working in the jungle under those hot lights."

It was the kind of situation that could crop up in Cambodia. The size of Missouri, it has 5.7 million people and perhaps the most unpronounceable capital city in the world —Phnom Penh (phonetically, P-nom Pen).

It suffers from national paranoia about the imagined aggressive intentions of its Communist-threatened neighbors, Thailand and South Viet Nam, brought on by a history of invasions by both countries. Cambodia sought French protection from its neighbors in the 1860s. It ended only with the close of the Indochina War in 1954.

The nation has one-man rule in popular Prince Sihanouk. A Fiorello LaGuardia type, he toes a neutralist line in foreign affairs and a hard line against any internal Communist threat, borrowing time for his country to develop.

It is also a country where, when you call for a taxi, a man pedals up in a bicycle-propelled sedan chair. And its postal system can speed an airmail letter to Saigon, a 40-minute plane ride away, in about a month.

In this setting, Mme. Pung Peng Cheng pursues her modest goal—promoting women's rights.

She sipped a soft drink beside her swimming pool recently and told a visitor:

"There is a lot to be done. Matrimonial laws and the laws of inheritance and property rights still are very much in the husband's favor. Women have never really had any property of their own.

"We're writing a law to remedy that.

"We need to do more for the poor and for the education of children.

"But what we really must have—and we don't need laws for that—is more women going to work.

"So much is needed in our country. Everyone must work. Husbands don't always understand.

New P-TA Council President Likes Her Role As Homemaker

Mrs. John A. Thomson, new president of the Mill Valley Parent-Teacher Assn. Council, finds her role as a homemaker far more interesting and challenging than was her full time job during World War II.

MRS. THOMSON

This was as office manager for the non-technical department of Shell Development Engineering Department in San Francisco. In which her duties were to relieve the technical staff of non-technical administrative details and keep the secretarial staff at a high level of efficiency.

The wife of an investment salesman, she is the mother of four boys, John. A. Jr., 12; James H., 11; Frank H., 7; and Lewis W., 5. The family has lived in Marin nine years.

Pat, as Mrs. Thomson is known to her friends, has been a member of the P-TA seven years and served from 1960 to 1962 as president of the Old Mill School P-TA. She was also a member of its executive board for several years.

"The specific purpose of the Mill Valley P-TA Council," she said, "is to work on projects of common interest to all the schools in the Mill Valley school district and Tamalpais High School.

"Its ultimate purpose is to promote the welfare of children in the home, school and community, and I feel there is no end to what can be done in this respect. And by so doing we enrich our whole society. This is my main interest outside my own home.

"One special feature this year is to be a joint metting of all Mill Valley P-TA groups in February to which some outstanding speaker on education will be invited to talk."

Pat Thomson was a Boy Scout den mother from 1960 to 1961 and since the beginning of 1962 she has been chairman of the choir mothers' guild of the Episcopal Church of Our Saviour in Mill Valley. Some of her other interests are gardening, playing tennis and sailing and hiking with her family.

A native of Oakland, she is a third generation Californian through both parents. Until she married her home was in the country south of Hayward on a ranch bought from General Vallejo in the 1850s.

The new P-TA Council president was graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in political science and international relations from the University of California.

Other new officers of the council are Mesdames William Clark, vice president; William Keeler, recording secretary; Frank Hamilton, corresponding secretary; and Bill Garoutte, treasurer.

G. R. McConnell, superintendent of the Mill Valley school district, is honorary vice president and administrative representative.

Community 4-H Club Extends An Invitation To Membership

Invitation to 4-H membership is extended to San Rafael boys and girls aged 10 to 19, by Philip Maley, community Leader of the San Rafael Community 4-H Club.

Keyed to plans for the coming year is a newsletter just prepared on projects, activities, community service and leadership training.

Members and prospective members are asked to indicate their preferences immediately so that additional leaders may be secured if necessary and committees and events can be planned.

Copies of this outline can be obtained from president-elect Linda Fitzharris, 1235 Grand Avenue, San Rafael.

Possible projects for the year include electricity, woodworking, forestry, horses, guide dogs, vegetable gardening, clothing (sewing), food preparation, home grounds beautification, better buying, home furnishings and food preservation (freezing and canning).

In addition, there are "activities" such as a possible car repair group, photography, demonstration techniques, leadership training, career clinic, recreation skills, etc. These will be scheduled in the fields where most interest is shown. To be eligible for an "activity," members must have a 4-H project (these are worked out under University of California Extension planning.)

Further information on 4-H in general or the San Rafael Club in particular, can be obtained from the office of the County Farm and Home Advisors in the Civic Center.

Billiard Room In The Home Has Become New Status Symbol

Popularity of the game of billiards is zooming nationally, and many a family would like the pleasure and status that comes with having their own private billiard room. But these homeowners hesitate before installing a full size table in basement playroom or attic, since it is 9 feet long, 4½ feet wide, quite heavy and cannot easily be moved. The space occupied, therefore would seem to be permanently invested in one game.

However there is a way to use your space and have it too, reports the Construction Research Bureau, a national clearing house for building information, which has studied how homeowners themselves have solved this problem.

THE BUREAU passes along the following tips on how a billiard room can easily be transformed to a multi-purpose room without coping with the problem of moving a heavy table.

1. First of all there are smaller tables available to fit your playroom size, an 8 feet long by 52 inches wide billiard table, and one 7 feet long by 48 inches wide. Also, these tables are portable and have folding legs.

2. Regardless of size, these tables all can be easily transformed into official size ping-pong tables without putting them away or moving them. Simply put a plywood board 9 feet long and 5 feet wide on top of the table, add a net and start to play. Any local lumberyard or building supply dealer will cut a plywood board to these dimensions for you. You can paint it yourself, green for visibility of ping pong balls, and a white stripe along the edges and down the center line.

3. The ping-pong table then can be converted into a party or dining table by removing the ping-pong net and covering with a tablecloth. Refreshments, buffet style, or a served meal can be enjoyed at such a table.

4. Both billiards and ping-pong are best played on a resilient tile floor, which never requires waxing and is easily cleaned of food and liquid refreshment spillage when the table is converted to dining. This floor is easily installed by the homeowner himself, if he wishes.

5. The plywood board table can be used as a meeting table for such groups as Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, or women's clubs. It's very handy, too, if you make your own clothes.

6. When not in use, the plywood board which serves as a ping-pong or dining table surface, can be stored flat against a side wall, taking up virtually no storage space.

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

By HARRY CRAFT

New Business Sounds Like Subdivision—But It Isn't

A new business that sounds like a subdivision—but is not, is Marinda Village, expected to open in San Rafael about next Thursday. The location: Part of the former Dumont Co. plant at Irwin Street and Duffy Place.

In the words of Jack W. Louie, of Oakland who heads the venture, "It's going to be a trade center for non-necessities — but not a discount house." More specifically, it deals in imports, mostly from the Orient, art goods, dishware and furniture. Louie visualizes it as a place to browse, buy, admire displays—and eventually watch a fashion show, attend art classes, sit down at a restaurant or cocktail lounge and spend the entire morning or afternoon if the fancy strikes you.

All these facilities won't be fully developed at the start, but should get underway in the next few months. There is ample floor space to utilize and Louie promises that the center will be entirely different from anything in the Bay Area — much larger than Import Outlet maintained in Berkeley by the same owners.

In disclaiming its category as a discount house, he says profit margins will be figured as in any business, but that items will be priced attractively.

SAN MARIN, the 2,000-acre planned community in North Marin, expected ultimately to house a population of 13,000 residents, will be opened Saturday, with four furnished model homes and a visitors' reception center. Other homes in the first unit are nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy by next month.

Drive north on Novato Boulevard until you see the signs and building activity.

GEOFFREY W. FAIRFAX of San Anselmo has joined forces with Robert R. Weber to form the architectural firm of Weber and Fairfax, 254 Sutter Street, San Francisco. Fairfax was previously an associate partner of Wurster, Bernardi and Emmons and was project architect for San Francisco's Golden Gateway redevelopment project.

Fairfax

BUSINESSMEN and other individuals belonging to professional organizations and clubs are being requested to assist the Civic Center Committee in supplying preliminary information as to possible requirements for meetings and gatherings of all types in connection with the suggested building of a Veterans Memorial Auditorium — a proposed multi-purpose facility on the fairgrounds site next to the Civic Center.

Questionnaires are available at the Marin Visitors Bureau, 824 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, which is faced with submitting a report within the next few days to the supervisors.

This could be the means of attracting conventions, public events and regional business meetings to Marin.

Air Force Assn. Officers Elected

James Barnard was elected president of the newly organized Novato Air Force Assn. Tuesday night at a meeting at Nave Lanes in Novato.

Richard Nave was elected vice president, and Thomas Burford, secretary-treasurer. Lee Wise will handle the membership campaign and Paul Marshall, the publicity. Billy C. Means and Eugene Trombley will constitute the council.

Redistrict Meeting Scheduled

County Supervisor Peter Behr was successful at the moment of supervisorial adjournment Tuesday in getting a special meeting on redistricting set for Thursday, Aug. 29.

Chairman William D. Fusselman voiced no enthusiasm, declaring that his district is large, embraces no fewer than five towns, and "I'm not ready to go for any decision yet."

"I had no idea that we'd decide," said Behr, "but it's time we resumed work on this matter."

The late Chairman Walter R. Castro caused several special meetings on supervisorial redistricting to be held, basing his discussion on a special committee's report submitted last summer. But during his illness the subject was dropped because of feeling that it should be handled only by a full board.

2 Experts To Look At Children's Home

Franz Kamps, who has led youth training and treatment programs in both the United States and Europe, will arrive in Marin County Aug. 16 as the first of two consultants to take a one month look at county plans for a residential treatment home for children.

Kamps, 39, is author of a German text book on social group work and recently has been superintendent of the Minnesota Residential Treatment Center at Lino Lakes.

He has also served as program and association director of the St. Paul Neighborhood House, and was a consultant for two years for the U.S. State Department on youth activities and community services, and has worked as assistant director of the Bavarian Youth Leadership Training School in Germany.

Following Kamps' arrival by about a week will be Henry Maier, associate professor of social work at University of Washington.

According to County Probation Officer Walter H. Busher, the two will work together at the Lucas Valley site checking over plans for the building and the program Busher hopes to carry out.

The two men were hired with a $3,600 grant from the Rosenberg Foundation.

The county now has a pilot project with six children at Juvenile Hall where a probation office caseworker does intensive treatment work with both the child and his parents. This program, under a grant from the National Institute of Mental Health, is expected to be expanded when the 30-bed treatment center is built.

The county board of supervisors has tentatively budgeted $140,000 for this year to start construction of the center, expected to cost $230,000 when completed. The state is expected to supply $90,000.

Room To Relax When Traveling

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — The Florida Hotel Commission proposed to take the wrinkles out of the travel-weary tourists with bigger beds.

It wrote hotel and motel operators that the average person was an inch taller than the previous generation and needed more room to stretch out.

At the time of the 1960 census, nearly half of all working men were in blue-collar jobs, working as operatives, craftsmen and laborers.

Record Hop Set In San Rafael

A record hop for seventh and eighth graders will be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow in San Rafael's new community center, the American Legion building across the street from Firehouse No. 2 at Third and Union streets.

Recreation director Joseph D. Rodota asks those attending to bring records to play and havet heir parents pick them up after the dance.

All teen-agers may play pool, ping pong or chess at the center, he said. Those interested in what hours may call Mrs. Mildred Smith at the center.

'Write Me A Murder' Is Slated

"Murderers have come from nearly every walk of life, including doctors, lawyers, college professors and students, but it is a fact that there has never been a mystery author who was a murderer—or at least never one that has been caught . . .

"It is believed that in writing crime stories the writer satisfies his homicidal impulse by killing his victim on paper."

These theories are taken from the play, "Write Me a Murder," to be presented at Sausalito's Gate Theater opening Friday. The play, written by Frederick Knott, who also wrote "Dial 'M' for Murder," concerns an author who writes a murder plot which is so perfect he is tempted to use it himself instead of publishing it.

The cast for the West Coast premiere, produced by Jack Aranson and Co., includes Aranson, and his wife, Mary Rose McMaster of Mill Valley; Donald Spencer of Tiburon; George Ede, Russell Ernst, Robert Slattery and Kathleen Chapman, all of San Francisco.

Tickets are available at the Sausalito bus depot or at the boxoffice one hour before performance. Performances will be Thursday, except for this week, Friday, Saturday at 8:30 p.m. and Sundays at 8 p.m.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

28 EDITORIAL PAGE Thurs., August 8, 1963 San Rafael, Calif.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Marin Welfare Policy Is Endorsed By The State

Of interest to all residents of California was recent announcement by J. F. Wedemeyer, state director of social welfare, that a special investigation of aid to needy children had disclosed statewide "an incidence of fraud or ineligibility" probably ranking lowest in the nation.

Even more interesting to Marin County residents is the fact that Marin, whose efficient and humanitarian work in this welfare category has won national attention, for years has practiced principles which the Wedemeyer statement now endorses as bringing best results. The issue goes deeper than chiseling though that's important.

Welfare Director Betty L. Presley came to Marin County in May of 1951 at which time her department doled out relief in old-fashioned style. Eligibility was determined when applicants applied. If the case was deserving, money was handed out. To many, that seemed all there was to it—the familiar depressing formula of the pauper linked with the concept of the poor farm.

It took some time for Miss Presley to modernize this philosophy. She dates the new era from Oct. 1, 1954, almost nine years ago, when the Marin County Board of Supervisors approved a policy of hiring professionally trained welfare workers and keeping their case loads to manageable proportions so they could usefully employ what they knew.

This first established a pattern in Marin welfare work which has meant a great deal more than can be expressed in cold statistics. Nonetheless the statistics have been helpful in showing such things as are now highlighted by the state in its spot-check demonstration that cheaters aren't getting away with the crimes often popularly attributed to them. Sinners are soon detected.

The taxpayer is not being victimized, and that is important. But it is even more important that Marin has led the way in lightening relief rolls by helping many of the needy to help themselves.

It is vitally important that family life be conserved where possible, rather than broken up because of mechanical treatment of those in trouble. Children's lives are enriched rather than impoverished while parents are helped to be better parents, and contributing members of the community.

Wedemeyer found that in some parts of the state, welfare operators are inefficient and many workers still handle too many cases. As Betty Presley has long preached, this is the falsest kind of economy, the most expensive in both money and humanity.

Every resident of Marin County may be proud that in this as in much else we have taken and still maintain a lead. In fact it is hard if not impossible to think of any field more important than one where human lives, as well as the taxpayer's dollar, are at stake.

A Season To Beware Of Snakes

In comparison to the abundance of other wildlife, Marin has relatively few poisonous snakes. However, in the dry late summer and early autumn, occasional rattlers are driven from the hills in search of water.

The safest policy in this season is to warn the children not to fool around with any snake. And for adults to observe extreme caution when killing rattlers. These snakes can move with amazing speed and agility for supposedly sluggish, cold-blooded animals.

Some people in the know suggest putting out pans of water heavily spiked with insecticides which are fatal to reptiles. But this is fraught with danger to children and pets.

Exercise normal prudence. Chances are you will not see a snake anyway. And if you do, chances are better than even it will not be a rattler. Just play it safe and be careful.

WASHINGTON WINDOW

Goldwater Has More Than Mere Lunatic Fringe Supporters

By LYLE C. WILSON

IF IT IS a fact that Sen. Barry Goldwater is the presidential choice of what Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller calls the Radical Right, then there must be a great many more Radical Righters. than anyone has suspected.

Goldwater's national following is no mere fringe, lunatic or not. The polls show that the Arizona senator has substantial support in all parts of the United States. The latest Gallup Poll was an eye-opener.

Goldwater appears to be the choice of about 31 per cent of the nation's political independents. He appears also to have about double the independent support which had attached itself to Sen. Robert A. Taft a few weeks before the 1952 Republican National Convention. It is a fact, of course, that the northeastern modern or liberal Republicans strangled Taft in 1952.

BUT THE stranglers had going for them more than their anti-conservative, modern or liberal point of view. That would not have been enough. Taft would have been easily nominated against mere opposition by the northeastern Republican kingmakers.

Two factors made the kingmakers' attack on Taft the deadly maneuver it was. First there was the fear among Republican moneybags everywhere that Taft could not win, that he had no voter appeal, that he was not an effective campaigner. This fear was in error, but is was smartly nourished by the northeastern Republicans who finally did Taft in.

They also had going for them an ideal candidate of their own, a hero-general as corny as Kansas. It was these latter factors that finished off Taft's political career.

THE KINGMAKERS urgently need another such hero. The elements of the Republican party who masterminded Taft's rejection in 1952 are maneuvering how to cut down Goldwater.

The guilt-by-association ploy seeks to tag Goldwater as a member, advocate of or sympathizer with the John Birch Society.

Goldwater's answer to that is that he does not regard the Far Righters as dangerous to the American way as are the Far Lefters. And he makes the further point that the Far Righters are not in federal office whereas the Kennedy administration is salted with representatives of the well-left-of-center Americans For Democratic Action.

Objective observers have called Goldwater more conservative than Taft. But this does not imply membership in the John Birch Society or anything like it.

There evidently are some millions of Americans who want no part of that society or its leaders but who believe the senator from Arizona is the newly discovered prophet for a holy political war against over-centralized, big spending, deficit government.

Let's Be Kind To Rockets

Editor, Independent-Journal:

It's very hard for me to understand the objections raised against a few rocket tests in our bay waters.

From your articles the noise factor seems to be uppermost, and yet all of us living in North Marin seem to survive the jet-engine noise from our local Air Force base. These rockets can't be much worse.

But my main objection to these objections is from what we might call a citizen's viewpoint. Here is a rocket being developed to help keep our country as we know and love it, and yet because it can be heard a group of us would rather that it be tested in somebody else's back yard.

It would seem to me that we should do all in our power to make this the only rocket we ever hear.

Much Take But Little Give

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Being one of the "lowly" masses, am wondering to whom we can yell "Help!" We bear the brunt of criticism from the minority, must say nothing while our welfare rolls increase yearly, and have the tax men socking us with higher taxes each year.

We say nothing; but quietly work longer hours, or take on an extra part-time job, make our clothes over for our children, stretch the food dollar with beans and spaghetti, widen the space between doctor and dentist visits, etc. Yet we keep our property looking decent and make gradual improvements—and next year we're all rewarded with still higher taxes. So we start on the merry-go-round again.

The minority raise a voice loud and clear: "Give me what you have." I have yet to read: "I will give you a good day's work; my home will be kept up as good as yours, my children study as hard as yours; but I earnestly wish a chance to prove myself." Any person must give to receive.

Our welfare (and 50 per cent of our unemployment) program is a laugh. We mustn't do anything to make these people feel uneasy about accepting funds they didn't earn. Quite possibly if they felt a little uneasy, would they not try seriously to find employment? And who among us has not heard the statement from our "unemployed" friends: "I've only four more weeks of vacation; that's when my checks run out"?

Wouldn't is be wonderful to read of certain county departments, rather than asking the budget committee for funds for nine new employees plus one supervisor, plus more office space, file cabinets (and janitors and PG&E, etc., to go with all that), to say: "We have eliminated several steps in our procedure, will need fewer employees (and all above) and still feel we will run a most efficient office"?

There are presently seven in our family and at times I'm almost tempted to take all the pressure off my husband and kids and sit back and every month collect from the "government" (who's that?). But right now I'll yell one more time: "Help!" . . .

Marin Lucky In Leydecker

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Although I was an aspirant who actively sought the interim appointment as supervisor of the First District, I find it difficult to remain silent in the face of the recent, unjustified criticism of the selection of Mr. Byron Leydecker for this position.

We are living in a growing county, requiring progressive leadership. In Mr. Leydecker we should feel we are fortunate in having a supervisor who is fully capable in the capacities necessary to our county at this time.

A young man, successful in business, youthful in projecting concepts and mature in the understandings of finances—what more could we have sought for this position?

Let us not concern ourselves with party labels, time of consecutive residency in Marin County, or any other unnecessary standards of judging such an appointee.

We should be thankful to have a man of this calibre represent us and see to it that he is made aware of our interests. That we support him in his just representation of the First District as well as the entire County of Marin.

Cruelty To A Pet Cat

Editor, Independent-Journal:

An article in the I-J has weighed on me terribly, the account of the two boys, 16 and 13, inflicting atrocious torture on the cat which I believe had been given to the younger boy, and then leaving it to die in agony.

I don't know hardly what to write about such a thing, but I know when I thought of our four beloved pets and especially my one old cat who for 10 years has given us such unstinting devotion and love, I just wept for this poor helpless living creature coming to such a hideous end.

As for the two boys, how thankful I am that I know there is a God who is merciful to forgive even such a crime as this. I just earnestly pray that each boy will come to a full and complete realization of what he has done, of the almost unspeakable cruelty of this act, and that this act, horrible and lustical as it was will be the beginning of a turning from the way of life each has been on, to a way that is right, good and true. Above all, right with God.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

The musical, "Mr. President," suggests that a chief executive feels lost after he leaves the White House for good. Several actual Presidents of the U.S.A., however, seemed to be rather relieved when they retired from their exalted office.

George Washington, for instance, declared, "I'd rather be in the grave than in the presidency again." Said Thomas Jefferson: "Never did a prisoner released from his chains feel such relief as I shall in shaking off the shackles of power."

And James Buchanan whispered to Abraham Lincoln, "If you are as happy, dear Sir, on entering the White House as I am on leaving it, you are the happiest man in the country!"

Nat Wartels, a 2-handicap golfer, stopped in a a sporting goods store just off Times Square and bought a dozen golf balls. "Shall I wrap them up?" asked the clerk. "Don't bother," said Wartels. "I'll just drive them home."

I J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By FRED WYATT

Larkspur Finds Sweeper Gadget Can't Match The Human Hand

The subject today is Larkspur.

In this column in the San Francisco Examiner last Friday Bill Hall wrote:

"La VIE LARKSPUR—Does the Larkspur City Council have a secret boss? The reporter for a San Rafael daily seems to direct every decision. If he smiles, they know they're doing the right thing. If he frowns, it's a mistake. Sometimes he grimaces, pretends he's pulling out his hair, and that means trouble, like committing Larkspur to the swamp rats or something."

I am grimacing at this notoriety. But except for admitting I am "the reporter for a San Rafael daily" who covers the council, I am preparing a plea of innocent to the interesting charges in Monsoor Hall's item.

I ADMIT to having written numerous pargraphs through the months anent the windy, and sometimes productive, discussions instituted by Mayor Lesly A. Daveler. Several times I have reported how Daveler and Councilman Robert J. Smith have tied the council in knots.

I can report further that certain fellow councilmen at times have as much trouble as I do in decoding some lengthy remarks by Daveler. He can start a thought in a certain direction and a translation later will show he ended up somewhere else than aimed.

Smith also has this tantalizing ability. A fellow reporter who is an old hand on the staff and plenty savvy once remarked: "For a laywer, Smith expresses himself in the most confused manner I ever heard."

THE DEADLINES for columns is earlier than for spot news. Thus this was written before last night's council meeting.

As a result I am unable to discuss action on one item due for discussion. The harassed city manager, Ronald E. Piper, was to report in depth on just where the city street sweeping machine patrols and how much its operations cost the city.

The report was compiled at Daveler's instigation. Among other things Daveler has complained that certain deep gutters are not reached by the machine. He has suggested that this be done by a human being by hand.

This reminds me of the old steel steps leading from the city room of the Denver Post, in its old location on Champa Street, to the composing room one floor above.

WHILE SERVING there I inquired why the paper didn't move copy to the printers by pneumatic tube rather than having office boys run up the steps, where they easily could break a leg if they slipped.

"Oh," replied an old timer, "when one of the owners, Frederic Bonfils, was alive he believed in never having machinery do anything a human being could be made to do."

Ah, time-honored methods!

F.B.I. Often Unfairly Criticized In Its Civil Rights Role

WASHINGTON — Unless the role and record of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in dealing with civil rights violations are widely understood, it is going to be unfairly caught in the middle of a hurtful controversy.

Already extremists on both sides are inaccurately accusing the F.B.I. either of wilfully encroaching upon the sovereignty of state and local agencies or of wilfully neglecting to do its duty under civil rights legislation.

This kind of ill-considered, uninformed criticism of the F.B.I. will not do anybody any good. It can only do harm.

It has already brought a strong rebuke frorm Director J. Edgar Hoover who, in the course of an article in the August issue of the Yale Political magazine, wrote:

"THERE ARE highly vocal pressure groups who feel that the F.B.I. should be obligated to step in wherever, in their opinion, a breakdown in law enforcement has occurred. When we have declined to exceed our jurisdiction in response to these demands, extremists among these elements have gone so far as to accuse the F.B.I. of racism.

"Persons such as these are less bigoted in their thinking than those who parade around in white shirts demanding that the F.B.I. 'stop prying into state and local affairs' and counseling witnesses to civil rights violations, 'Don't tell F.B.I. agents anything.'"

These words deserve to be pondered—and heeded.

THE FIRST necessity is to understand the F.B.I.'s assigned responsibilities in the area of civil rights and the limits of its jurisdiction. Its responsibilities are defined in the acts of Congress including the Civil Rights laws of 1957 and 1960. It has been given authority to investigate these eight categories of rights violations:

1. Involuntary servitude and slavery.
2. Any infringement on the right to vote for a candidate for Federal office.
3. Conspiracies to deprive any citizen of the free exercise of any right secured to him by the Constitution or Federal law.
4. The deprivation, by persons acting under the color of law, of any such rights.
5. Willful obstruction of any Federal court order—such as an order requiring a public school to desegregate.
6. Interstate flight to avoid prosecution for firing or bombing private, religious, or educational institutions, or to avoid testimony.
7. Interstate transportation of any explosive with knowledge that it will be used for the foregoing purpose.
8. Use of any instrument of communication or commerce to threaten to damage private or public buildings.

THESE assigned duties give the F.B.I. a wide responsibility in the area of civil rights which it has and will carry out without apology to anybody.

But it needs to be understood that the F.B.I. is not a national police force; it is a Federal police force concerned only with Federal law. It is not an enforcement agency; it is strictly an investigative agency. It cannot and should not exceed its jurisdiction.

When no violation of Federal law has taken place, it can't step in merely because there has been a breakdown of state or local law enforcement.

Civil rights cases are handled by special agents of the F.B.I. who have completed advanced training courses which specifically qualify them to conduct such investigations.

In recent years the F.B.I. has taken the initiative to provide civil rights training to law enforcement agencies in all parts of the country.

When this hand was played in New York's famous Cavendish Club a couple of years ago, West cashed the top clubs and led a third club for lack of any better idea. Dummy's 10 of clubs won the third trick, and South got rid of a diamond loser.

NORMAL

It seemed normal enough, but this discard cost South his contract.

Declarer continued with dummy's ace of spades and then had to reach his hand to continue the trumps.

He cashed the ace of hearts and ruffed a heart for this purpose.

TRUMP PLAY

South would have been safe if he had continued with a low trump, but he had no way of knowing that the king would have to fall willy-nilly.

Declarer made the normal trump play of leading the queen of hearts, and South couldn't shut out West's 10 of spades. Down one.

Go back to the third trick and see what happens if South discards the singleton heart instead of a diamond.

CASHES ACE

Declarer then cashes the ace of spades and ruffs the first round of hearts to reach his hand.

He leads the queen of spades to force out the king, and is safe on a heart return because West must still follow suit.

If you have to play side suits before you draw trumps, avoid playing any suit more than necessary.

You may put an opponent in a position to ruff or over-ruff.

Today is Thursday, Aug. 8, the 220th day of 1963 with 145 to follow.

The moon is approaching its last phase. The morning stars are Jupiter and Saturn. The evening stars are Mars and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1940, the German Luftwaffe began a series of daytime raids on the British Isles which were to continue until Oct. 31.

In 1945, President Harry Truman signed the ratification of the United Nations charter.

In 1950, Florence Chadwick of San Diego set a women's record in swimming the English Channel.

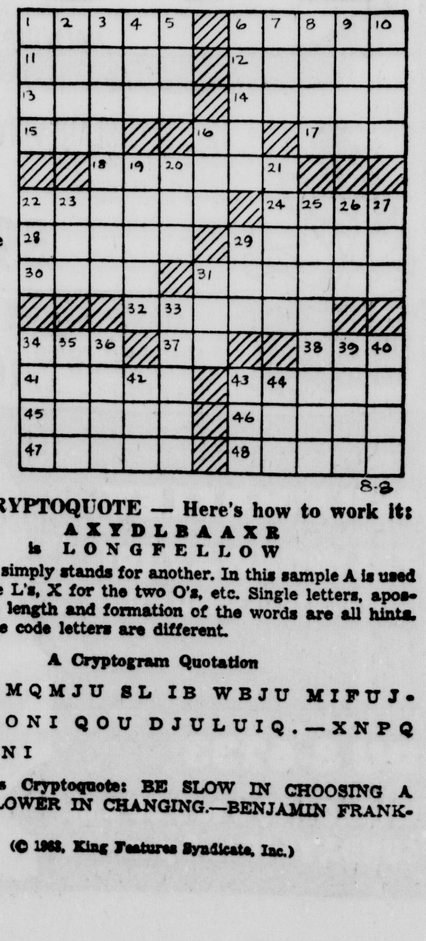
Yesterday's Answer



DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X E
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation

Q O U Y M Q M J U S L I B W B J U M I F U J -
Q N S I Q O N I Q O U D J U L U I Q . — X N P Q
X O S Q W N I

Gold Grubbing Is Paying Off

OROVILLE (AP) — They say gold is too expensive to mine nowadays but it obviously is still a find.

That's the word as work progresses on the 600-million-dollar Feather River Dam project in California's old gold country.

Water from the Feather has been diverted and workers are spending their lunch and off duty time picking over the dry bed. They're finding chips and flakes left over from the gold rush days of 1849.

Oro Dam Constructors, the construction company, and the State of California frown on the gold grubbing.

But as one gang boss put it, "Some of these boys already have a couple of ounces. And at $35 an ounce, you can't stop them."

Schuman Improves

METZ, France (AP) — Former French Premier Robert Schuman, 77, a leading exponent of European unity, was reported considerably improved today. He had been seriously ill with a lung infection and a circulatory ailment.

Fifth Graders Going To Sleepy Hollow School

Fifth grade pupils who attended Yolansdale School in San Anselmo last year must go to Sleepy Hollow School this fall despite parents' protests, the San Anselmo School District board voted Tuesday night.

Parents had asked that the pupils be put someplace where they could walk to school, possibly in a room in the First Baptist Church.

Trustees voted unanimously against the proposal, commenting that a room is empty at Sleepy Hollow. The children will go there by bus.

The board also heard a brief speech by Joseph Tilt of 61 Angela Avenue, who Monday was appointed by the citizens committee for the Oct. 15 tax and bond election to serve as co-chairman of the committee with Ernest N. Kettenhofen.

Director Sought For Sanitary Unit Vacancy

The Corte Madera Sanitary District board today invited persons interested in filling a vacancy on the board to be interviewed at an adjourned meeting at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 20 at district headquarters, 500 Tamalpais Drive.

The board Tuesday night accepted the resignation of director John Phil Seymour, who left town about four months ago and settled in Waverly, R.I. After repeated inquiries, Seymour mailed his resignation July 13.

The board directed Secretary Portia FitzGerald to write Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety asking that he enforce the district ordinance in connection with five houses along Greenbrae Boardwalk that have not made sewer connections.

The bay area water pollution control board is pressing the district on this matter.

Scotch Highlands, a four-lot subdivision on the Corte Madera Grade, was accepted into the sewer system.

Oldtimer Worked Up To The Last

BLOOMING GROVE, Tex. (AP) — Richard R. Massengale appeared for work as usual at a feed store yesterday.

He accepted congratulations from several friends because it was his 93rd birthday.

Then Messengale said he felt ill and stretched out on a bench to rest. A little later fellow workers found he had died.

John Scott Harrison had the distinction of being the only presidential son to become the father of a president.

Two Enlistments In Navy Announced

Two more enlistments in the Navy were announced today by Chief Bosun's Mate W. T. Garner of the Navy Recruiting Station at 1116 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

Terry Lee Rosenthal, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kurt L. Rosenthal of 6 Glen Park Avenue, San Rafael, enlisted for three years. William Francis Soldavini, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Soldavini of 348 San Francisco Boulevard, San Anselmo, signed up for four years in the Navy's school airman program. Both were sent to San Diego Naval Training Center for recruit training.

Talk on Navy Set

Stafford Lake Rec Area Study Is Requested

A request that Marin County study the Stafford Lake area for recreational purposes was voted Tuesday night by North Marin County Water District directors.

James McConnell and John Stuber, representing the Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce, asked that the board support the junior chamber in trying to get a master plan for development of the Stafford Lake area for recreation.

The board approved Western California Telephone Co.'s installing a pole line along the Marin aqueduct right of way north of Novato.

It accepted extension agreements for Kaden Park Unit 1 of 48 lots by Novato Hills off Rowland Boulevard, Holiday Hills Unit 1 of 35 lots off Stone Drive, the Jules Drive, El Novato Motel, Sheila Estates, McClay Road and Sixth Street apartments.

Burglars Get Radio At Stinson House

Burglars smashed the window of a summer home in Stinson Beach and escaped with a $600 radio and amplifier, owner Evelyn T. Wienhalz of Modesto told the sheriff's office.

Deputy John O. Goff said yesterday the burglars had hung a blanket over the window so the break would not be noticed. Mrs. Wienholz said she had not visited the house since June.

'Group Home For Girls' Savings Told

Total Juvenile Hall savings through operation of the proposed Marin Foundation (Friends of Arequipa) "group home for girls" would be $3,480 for the six months from Jan. 1 to the end of the fiscal year, county supervisors were told Tuesday.

This, said a letter from Welfare Director Betty L. Presley and Probation Officer Walter Busher, would represent cost reduction through cutting the average daily girl population at Juvenile Hall by 4, or 9 per cent. Savings would be in salaries and maintenance.

But cost would be around $390 per child per month. Supervisors didn't try to grapple with the arithmetic involved and referred the matter over to approaching budget discussion.

In another letter Miss Presley analyzed foster home rates and found that "I have no basis to recommend an increase at this time."

War Games Directed From Hamilton Base

The defense of Western United States against a simulated attack today is being directed from the blockhouse or headquarters of the 28th North American Defense Region at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Army Maj. Gen. M. M. Magee is commanding the more than 200,000 people in the 28th Air Division participating in the games.

Marin residents will be aware of the games by the increased air activity at the air force base.

Officials in the block house at Hamilton command the sectors and evaluate the results of the defensive actions for the protection of the 10 Western states.

Taking part in the games are the fighter interceptors of the air force and air national guard, air defense missile units of the Army, and Navy radar picket ships.

Two Rifles Stolen

Marion W. Robinson, 150 H Lane, Novato, told the sheriff's office Tuesday two rifles were taken from an unlocked unfurnished house next to his home. He said the rifles, with a total value og $165, had been left by him on the floor of the living room of the house.

Redwood National Park Is Due Study

Rep. Donald H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) has successfully urged the National Park Service to employ an economic consultant to study the impact of a proposed Redwood National Park in northern coastal counties, he reported today.

Clausen said many of his constituents are worried over removal of additional lands from the tax rolls. John K. Decker of Berkeley has been hired to make the study.
